HEADING FOR THE WOODS

The Wisconsin gun deer season opens at sunrise Saturday, continuing through Dec. 1. Hunters by the thousands will be flocking to Oconto County woods, like this spot near Little Suamico. The Department of Natural Resources reminds the public that remember hunting is permitted at many state park system properties, so anyone venturing out should wear blaze orange or other brightly colored clothing. Land near school will continue as farmland for now

A longer-term decision is at least two years away

By WARREN BLUHM
News Editor

OCOnton FALLS — The Oconto Falls School Board is entering into an agreement with a local farmer to continue leasing land along County Road I for at least two more years.

The family that owned approximately 106 acres across from Oconto Falls High School and Oconto Falls Elementary School offered it to the school district about two years ago and closed on the sale this summer.

The board took the offer because it expects to have a conversation about upgrading or replacing aging Washington Middle School within three years, and the transaction gives the district a place to build a new middle school should the community agree.

In the meantime the farmer, Roger Blaser, who leased about 79 acres of the land from previous owner Joan Gauthier, has expressed an interest in continuing until a longer-term decision is made.

The board discussed a two-year lease with Blaser Farms for about 70 acres of tillable acres, or nine fewer acres than before. Superintendent Dean Hess noted that when the purchase went through, the seller asked at the last minute to keep four acres.

"The other piece was that FFA has requested that we have five acres sectioned off for our students and ag teachers to be developing as part of their curriculum," Hess said.

The superintendent said he did have a conversation with Blaser because, during his first year with the Oconto Falls district, some especially pungent liquid manure was spread over the land across the road.

"I came to work that day and had an oh-my-god experience and thought, 'What happened?'" Hess said. "That (smell) stuck around for two or three days. We actually had a concert in the Performing Arts Center, and it was intense."

During conversations about the lease, Blaser told him he remembered that incident and that the manure had been applied at a time when a strong east wind was blowing the aroma toward the schools.

"Ninety percent of the time, we have a west-northwesterly wind in Wisconsin," Hess noted. "He said, 'If I had to do it all over again, I would make an effort to make sure we don't spread it with an east wind.'"

Blaser agreed to rent the land at $100 an acre per year, or $140 per acre if he plans to apply liquid manure again, with a stipulation that only one spreading would occur during the two years of the contract.

The board agreed to let Blaser decide whether he wants to keep the manure-spreading option open. Board member Ken Harter said he's confident the farmer will take the steps required to prevent a repeat of the odoriferous previous experience.

"He's a very conscientious person," Harter said.

DPI says local schools meet or exceed expectations

State releases annual report cards

By WARREN BLUHM
News Editor

MADISON — Oconto County schools, like most public and private schools and public school districts in the state, continue to have a high rate of meeting expectations on state report cards remains high.

According to last week's Department of Public Instruction release of state report cards issued for the 2018-19 school year, overall 87 percent of rated schools met or exceeded expectations as did 96 percent of the state's 421 public school districts.

This is the fourth year the report cards used legislatively required calculations, which measure expectations on a 0-100 scale. Scores of 0-52.9 fail to meet expectations; 53-62.9 meet few expectations; 63-72.9 meet expectations; 73-82.9 exceed expectations; and 83-100 significantly exceed expectations.

Scores are calculated in four priority areas: student achievement; school growth; closing gaps between student groups; and measures of students being on-track for postsecondary readiness, which includes graduation and attendance rates, third-grade English language arts achievement, and eighth-grade mathematics achievement.

The statistics for each school and school district amount to about 10 pages each and can be accessed at <https://apps2.dpi.wi.gov/report-cards/home>. Here is a glance at how local districts fared.

GILLETT

The report card for the Gillett School District provided a good news/bad news snapshot. Overall the district received a 71.3 rating indicating it meets expectations.

The Elementary School's 74.3 rating exceeds expectations, and the Middle School's 84.4 rating puts it in the five-star "significantly exceeds expectations" category.

But the high school rating of 55.4 is the lowest of any high school serving Oconto County. A lack of school growth appears to be the trouble: Gillett High School's measurement of English Language Arts growth was only 1.7 on a scale of 0-50, and mathematics growth was 12.1.

LENA

The Lena School District's 65.9 rating meets expectations, led by a 79.8 rating for the Elementary School that exceeds expectations.

The Middle School earned a 62.6 (meets few expectations) and the High School 64.7 (meets expectations).

OCONTO

The overall district score for Oconto was 73.2, just into "exceeds expectations" territory. Both the Elementary School (78.4) and Middle School (77.1) exceed expectations, while the High School (65.7) meets expectations.

The charter middle school Bayshore Community Academy, with an enrollment of 73 students, led all local schools with a 95.0 rating, which significantly exceeds expectations.

Oconto also has a smaller school, NEW Learning Academy, which at 35 students has an enrollment too small for a measured rating but was said to have made "satisfactory progress."

OCONTO FALLS

The district meets expectations with a 68.0 rating. Abrams Elementary School (78.5) exceeds expectations with the highest rating among the district's schools; Oconto Falls Elementary School (72.6) fell just shy of the "exceeds expectations" mark.

Washington Middle School (68.5) meets expectations, and Oconto Falls High School (74.2) exceeds expectations.

The district's smaller schools – Falls Alternative Learning Site (14 students) and New Path (10 students) – both made satisfactory progress.

PULASKI

The largest school district serving at least part of Oconto County had the highest overall rating of 78.4. Four of its five elementary schools exceed or significantly exceed expectations – Hillcrest (83.5), Lanoye (81.6), Sunnyside (77.6) and Glenbrook (73.6) – while Fairview Elementary (72.1) is toward the high end of the "meets expectations" range.

Both the Middle (75.4) and High (79.0) schools are said to exceed expectations.

SURING

Suring Public School District had a 73.8 rating to exceed expectations. The Elementary School, which is listed as serving kindergarten through eighth grade and therefore includes Suring Junior High, meets expectations with a 71.0 rating.

The High School rating of 77.2 (exceeds expectations) came with an asterisk because it represents an increase of nearly 20 points from last year's 58.3 mark. The DPI considers a jump of 10 or more points to be "outliers" that may not reflect the actual magnitude of the change in performance.

"Careful and cautious review of the report card and all supplemental pages is recommended," the DPI said.

Historic local figures came back to life at cemetery walk in Oconto

10th annual 'If Tombstones Could Talk' event was in September

By SHARIE MERLINE

Special to the Times Herald

OCONTO — In 2010, Bob and Jane Klozotsky attended a cemetery walk in Brown County and liked it so much they decided to start one in Oconto County. "If Tombstones Could Talk" debuted not long afterward, with actors portraying historic local figures.

That first cemetery walk sold 50 tickets for a single night's performance, which later blossomed to three nights and 306 tickets being sold. Over the years 61 people have been portrayed. The 10th annual Oconto County Historical Society cemetery walk was held Sept. 17-19 in the John B. LeMay Auditorium at Oconto High School.

The theme for this year was "Sharing Family Stories." The Klozotskys research each person portrayed. Light refreshments are served after the presentation is over at the Beyer Home Museum.

This year's lineup of historical figures:

- Howard Merline Jr. (David Retzlaff) graduated high school in Oconto in 1934. He also raced his first Harley Davidson motorcycle on the race track, which was on Park Avenue. Howard also made a homemade sail and skated on ice on the bay all the way to Peshtigo. He married Joan Marie Vandenack on June 15, 1946, and the couple took a six-week honeymoon trip to Mexico on their Harley. While in Mexico on their tour, they were attacked by a bull. The Merlines owned the "Circle" gas station, truck stop and 24-hour restaurant on Smith Avenue in Oconto, which opened in 1950. Howard and Joan raised eight children. Howard served in World War II in the Company C Red Arrow Division. While in battle, Howard lost his right eye. He then received a purple heart. In December 1942 he fought in one of the most difficult battles in history, in New Guinea. Howard Merline was chairman for many Company C military reunions in Oconto. Some of his fellow men said Howard had the courage of 10 men.

- Rose Mary Belle Vangaal (Jeanne Young) was born in 1891 and was a local cook and caterer in Oconto. Her father was the sheriff, and when she married William Vangaal, they had their wedding reception at the county jail. She hired many local high school girls to help her in her catering business in Oconto, which she operated for 30 years. She once catered a meal for President John F. Kennedy. He told her it was the best meal he ever had. Her second most distinct catering meal was to famous violinist David Rubenoff, a Russian immigrant. Rose Mary Belle Vangaal was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and many civic organizations. The Vangaals were married 59 years and had three children. She passed away at age 84.

- Tom Duschene (Wayne Strei) was a cook on ships that sailed the Great Lakes. Born in the village of Garden in Delta County, Michigan, Tom graduated high school and then married Phyllis Smith. Duschene worked on iron ore ships and became the chief steward and cooked for many crews. In 1972, he had a heart attack and came back to Oconto. The couple had five children. Phyllis "Phiddy" and Tom opened the Po Purri card & gift shop in Oconto, where they sold antiques and gifts. He also became a butcher and later worked at Wayne's Family Restaurant making pies. He also worked bartending and made deer sculptures out of twigs. He passed away at age 64.

- Lenore Kelly-Weibusch (Kathy Campshire) was born in Milwaukee. Lenore graduated from Holy Family School of Nursing, Manitowoc, and worked there for awhile. In 1928 she married Walter Weibusch and moved to Oconto in the 1930s, living through the Great Depression. The couple had one son, John, who eventually became an Oconto County Circuit Court judge. She worked for local doctors and later Riverside Nursing home. She enjoyed golfing and playing bridge, and loved to laugh.

- Rosalie Noel-Cote (Kitty Werner) was one of the first students at St. Peter's Catholic School starting in 1886. She was born in Oconto and was the fourth of 10 children of Constant and Rosalie Noel, who came from the Walloon region of Belgium. In 1883, Constant Noel had a cheese factory west of Oconto; he was also a carpenter. Rosalie graduated high school in 1901. She married Louis Cote, a teacher. She also taught at Spruce School. She grew up in the Catholic school and shared her knowledge on history of the catholic school.

- James 'Jim' Lane (Ralph Loberger) started Lane & Sons School Bus service for over 40 years. He was born in Mattoon in 1923 and was a veteran of World War II. He developed bus routes and also assisted in deciding when the school should have a snow day. He married Genevieve Neta in 1947. The couple had eight children, four boys and four girls. Their family was active in the American Legion. Jim Lane also joined a group of friends in driving a 40-ton American Army tank from New Richmond to Oconto with a bad exhaust, a distance of 250 miles. He enjoyed playing golf and shuffleboard. In 1986, he sold the bus company he started and retired. He passed away at age 77 in the year 2000.

NOTICE Highway Obstructions in Oconto County

PUSHING SNOW OR OTHER MATERIALS ONTO OR ACROSS HIGHWAYS FROM PRIVATE DRIVEWAYS CAN CAUSE ACCIDENT AND DEATH, AND IS PROHIBITED BY WISCONSIN STATUTES 86.01, AND/OR 346.94 (5).

Obstruction of vision clearance triangles at intersections is prohibited by 86.022 of State Statutes and by Sections 14.410 of the County Zoning Ordinance. Placing mailboxes away from driveways and intersections helps to avoid vision-restricting snowbanks in late winter, and helps to avoid damage to your mailbox. The nearest part of your mailbox should not be closer to traffic than the shoulder line, with box and base strong enough to withstand wind, flying snow and slush from traffic and snowplows.

Avoid penalty and liability, and cooperate towards safer highways. The life you save may be your own. Oconto County Highway Department cooperates with the County Sheriff's Office, and the County Highway Safety Commission to enforce these laws.

HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

MAILBOX (Roadside Receptacles) REPLACEMENT POLICY

This policy addresses the Oconto County Highway Department's policy regarding mailboxes and roadside receptacles damaged as a result of Highway Department Operations.

Mailboxes and roadside receptacles are defined as any container used for the delivery of mail, newspapers, advertising circulars, or other printed material, along any County Trunk Highway right-of-way in Oconto County.

The mailbox or receptacle base shall be placed two feet from the back of the shoulder of the road; the box shall be 46 inches above the grade of the shoulder, and the front of the box shall not extend beyond the back of the shoulder of the road. The mailbox or receptacle base should be able to withstand flying snow and slush from traffic and snowplows.

According to the Division of Highways and Transportation Department there are several alternative methods for installing single mailboxes: An acceptable support for a mailbox includes wood posts 4" x 4" square or 4.5" in diameter. Soft metal conduits which are 1.5" to 2.5" in diameter are also acceptable. These supports should be embedded no more than 24" into the ground. There are additional support systems which allow the mailbox to swing if struck. On either of these two types of supports a mailbox may be mounted.

If a mailbox or receptacle base is damaged by flying snow or slush, it will not be replaced by the Highway Department. Any mailbox or base damaged by slush or heavy snow will be investigated by Highway Department staff.

If a mailbox is physically hit and damaged by a snowplow or other piece of equipment, it will be replaced with a metal or plastic box acceptable to the U.S. Postal Service. Decorative or other types of ornamental mailboxes will not be replaced in kind.

BY ORDER OF THE OCONTO COUNTY HIGHWAY COMMITTEE

Highway Commissioner

Peshtigo Brook wetlands work halted for winter

Work on the Peshtigo Brook wetlands mitigation in northern Oconto County has been suspended for the winter.

Crews have been working on the $1.4 million project along state Highway 64 in the towns of Brazeau and Bagley since July.

Peshtigo Brook Phase 1 was originally constructed in 2005 and requires modifications by directing more surface water into the 151-acre site, utilizing shallow excavation in limited areas, and reseeding.

The project is also constructing Peshtigo Brook Phase 3, which will restore about 284 acres of historic wetlands through shallow excavation, grading, elimination of internal farm ditches, installation of fixed weirs, and seeding.

A new culvert will be installed across the highway to facilitate surface water drainage.

Barbara L. Kahler

Barbara Lee Kahler, 81, Suring, died unexpectedly on Monday, Nov. 11, 2019. Barb was born on March 15, 1938, in Denmark to the late Thomas and Dorothy (Virgin) Young. She married Donald L. Kahler on Aug. 22, 1959. Together they had five children and later divorced.

Barb worked as a Nursing Assistant at Bellin Hospital for many years and later retiring from Bellin Home Health Care. After moving to Suring, she continued working at Krist Oil. Barb was known as "Mom," "Grandma" or "Granny" to many. She was spunky, had a great sense of humor, and an uncanny way of telling you exactly what she was thinking. Barb will be greatly missed by many including her little buddies Tanner and Gypsy.

Barb loved and spoiled all of her animals. She enjoyed bird-watching and gardening, and was especially proud of her flower garden. Barb also enjoyed taking care of her cats. Spending thousands feeding, and caring for them, and working with Cats Anonymous getting them spayed, and neutered.

Barb is survived by her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren: Brenda (Chuck) Tauscher, Suring, (Nora (Derek) Leisner, Levi and Evan): Sandra (Dana Dudley) Kahler, Seymour, (Jay Wagner-Kahler, Sadi (Henry Yandrasits) Dudley, and Kale Dudley): Becky Kahler, Fremont, (Amber (Jeremy) White, Autumn (Jared Staszak) Thyssen, Westynn: and Wyatt Thyssen): Lisa (Mark) Cygan, Green Bay, (Kayla (Jason) Steinfeldt, Hunter and Emma: and Steven (Mauri Princl) Cygan): and Donald (Dana) Kahler, Gillett, (Leeland Kahler, Elizabeth Kahler, Oaklynn: and Samantha Kahler). Barb is further survived by sisters Janice Remiker and Judith (Steve) Champagne, her brother Thomas (Ruth) Young, a brother-in-law Ervin Stuckart, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Anna Marie, her sister Carol Stuckart, a brother-in-law Paul Remiker, and her niece Karen Young.

As her wish, the family will hold a private memorial service. A special thank-you to Swedberg Funeral Home and everyone who assisted the family. www.swedbergfuneralhome.com

Joyce Johnson

Joyce Johnson, 91, Oconto Falls, died early Sunday morning, Nov. 10, 2019, at home with her family by her side. She was born Feb. 23, 1928, to Harry and Agnes Gomber. Joyce grew up on the family farm in Gillett and graduated from Gillett High School. As a young lady, she met the love of her life, Arnold Johnson, at a roller rink where they later spent many of their dates together.

On Feb. 26, 1955, Joyce and Arnold married and raised four children together. They spent their lives on the Johnson family farm, which they owned and operated for 41 years, enjoying all of the simple pleasures of a country lifestyle. Joyce also worked at Friday Canning (Seneca) for many years. As an avid baker, she loved to make cinnamon rolls, raised donuts and pepper nuts with and for her family. Joyce also enjoyed sewing and embroidering, whether it was mending pants or making beautiful pillow cases. She was also well known for her famous homemade baked beans, which were a common request for social gatherings.

Szymanski, Jerry (Missy) Johnson, Donna (Jim) Spang; 11 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren; one brother, Pete Gomber; many other family members and friends, as well as her beloved dog, Calla.

Visitation was held after 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15, 2019, at Jones Funeral Service in Oconto Falls until the time of service. Funeral services were held 6 p.m. Friday at the funeral home with Pastor Paul Nulton officiating. Cremation was to follow, with burial of the urn in Wanderer's Rest Cemetery, Gillett.

The Johnson family would like to thank Unity Hospice and Atrium Post Acute Care for all of their care and support, as well as those family members who made it possible for Joyce to come home near the end of her life.

Christmas Joy event to highlight Doughnut Girls

Faith United Methodist Church of Gillett has scheduled its Christmas Joy Women's Event for 6-8 p.m. Dec. 6 at the church, 11465 Old U, Gillett.

The evening features music, Scripture readings and guest speaker Tom Mulinix, who works with the Salvation Army and heard numerous stories from veterans about "Doughnut Girls."

He researched their background and discovered the story of how the Doughnut Girls literally helped turn the tide of World War I and history. Organizers said after hearing Mulinix, attendees will never eat a doughnut again and look on it the same.

A dessert reception starts at 6 p.m. when the doors open followed by the event at 6:30 p.m.

This is a free event although a Salvation Army Red Kettle will be set up for free-will donations.

OBITUARIES

Pastor Ron W. Hoffman

Pastor Ron W. Hoffman, 79, of Gillett passed away peacefully at home in his sleep early in the morning Wednesday, Nov. 13, 2019. He was born to the late Howard and Virginia (Hensley) Hoffman Sept. 4, 1940, in Cincinnati. In sixth grade Ron began his first job as a paper boy for the Cincinnati Post. Ron graduated from Anderson High School in Cincinnati. He attended Cedarville Baptist College for one year before attending Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music. He married the former Elaine Miller July 10, 1965, at Gillett Baptist Church. Ron was an associate pastor at Forestville Baptist Church in Cincinnati from 1964-1966 before pastoring at Section Eight Baptist Church, Pound, from 1966-1973. He also pastored at First Baptist Church in Fort Atkinson from 1973-1986; while there two additional chapels were begun at Blackhawk and Palmyra. Ron returned to Section Eight Baptist Church, Pound, in 1986 and pastored until 2002. In 2003 Ron and Elaine co-managed at a Holiday Retirement Community for two and a half years in Cincinnati and four years in Middleton. The couple retired to Gillett in 2011. Ron enjoyed refinishing antique furniture, gardening, decorating – he even took a class in flower arranging.

He was such a loving husband and father. He loved all people and was truly a servant of God. He knew how to be an encouragement to everyone and lived it out in his own life. Never complaining, only loving. “Keep on keeping on” is what he is still saying.

He is survived by his loving wife, Elaine; three children, Randy (Leanne) Hoffman, Ashland; Todd (Jamie) Hoffman, Atlanta, Georgia; Alicia Pitcher, Porterfield; 10 grandchildren, one great-grandson and two brothers, Ken Hoffman and Wayne (Pam) Hoffman.

Ron was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Donald Hoffman.

The family will greet relatives and friends at Section Eight Baptist Church, Pound, Thursday, Nov. 21, 2019, from 9:30 a.m. until the time of the Service at 11:30 a.m. with Pastor Reggie Reinhold, Pastor Kevin Holland and Rev. Jim Hoffman officiating. Ron will be placed to rest at Wanderer's Rest Cemetery, Gillett. Please visit RhodesCharapata.com to express online condolences.

Honoring veterans in Gillett

The community and school commemorated the men and women of the U.S. Armed Forces at the Gillett High School on Nov. 11. Elementary students sang songs, read poems and shared the flag-folding ceremony. The Gillett band and choir performed patriotic songs. After the program the community partook in a dessert reception in the commons. The PTO donated the beverages and OJ's Midtown Restaurant brought the pies.

Flowers producing seeds this time of year

Late fall and winter are the ideal time to enjoy the beauty and interesting forms of native wildflowers and grasses in a whole new way, the grace and texture of their seed heads. Not only are they a joy to look at, these plants also provide a whole new purpose in the garden throughout the winter season.

Our native wildflowers and grasses are an excellent source of food for winter birds. Some are migrating through, while others will remain all winter long, enjoying the natural feast provided by the seed heads of our native wildflowers and grasses.

In addition to the beauty they provide and the stunning winter interest, this is also a great time to collect and harvest the seed of these native

ROB ZIMMER

Mother Nature does. This is a very successful way of sowing many native wildflowers.

Another option with wildflower seeds is to collect them and store in a paper bag or dry, air proof container in a cool place for planting in the plants and either sow immediately or prepare for planting in the future. Many native wildflower growers simply collect the seed heads and scatter over the snow during the winter, planting the seed just as spring or to begin indoors later in the winter.

Some of the easiest native wildflower seeds to collect are purple coneflower, cup plant, blazing star, aster, milkweed, prairie coneflower, black eyed Susan and others.

Native wildflower seed heads provide wonderful interest in the garden throughout the winter season. The wonderful textures, different shades of brown and silver, feathery forms, and the vertical interest they provide are valuable in the winter garden.

Light snowfalls, such as those we have enjoyed the past week or two, really showcase the beauty and texture of winter wildflowers.

Of course, you can't enjoy all of this beauty and practical importance of native wildflowers in late fall and winter if you routinely chop them back every fall after Labor Day. More and more research has been published in recent years highlighting the importance of leaving your perennials and wildflowers standing throughout the winter season.

For all of their beauty, texture, interest, importance as food plants for native wildlife, as well as shelter for overwintering insects and other animals, consider allowing your native wildflowers to remain standing all winter long.

The seed heads of purple coneflower are unique and unusual, providing texture in the garden, as well as plentiful seeds for songbirds.

Late fall and winter are the perfect time to collect the seed of native wildflowers on your property.

Gillett returns entire girls team, eyes trip to state tournament

Other local teams looking for players to step up

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

GILLETT — The Gillett High School girls basketball team has high aspirations heading into the 2019-20 season.

Gillett is coming off a sectional semifinal appearance and returns every player from that team. The Tigers finished 16-10 overall and 10-6 in the Marinette & Oconto Conference.

“We have been to sectionals the last two years. The eventual next step is to move on to the Resch (Center, for the state tournament),” said Gillett coach Justin Daul. “We will continue with our motto of ‘why not us and one game at a time.’ These girls work hard and I look forward to them putting a great season together.”

Back from last year’s starting lineup are seniors Camryn Long and Sydney Young and juniors Aubrey DeBauch, Karissa Schaal and Brianna DeBauch.

Aubrey DeBauch made the all-conference first team last year, while Schaal landed on the second team.

Sophomore Macy Franti and senior Grace Wickman gave Daul solid minutes off the bench last year. The Tigers also will try and work Ryann Wagner into the mix after she transferred from Suring to Gillett.

“The team has high expectations this season. We are focusing and working hard at practice, and keeping our eyes and mind on state,” said Aubrey DeBauch.

“We need to get a refresher from everything we did last season and then we will pick up from where we left off, but pushing farther, working harder and playing together.”

The Tigers are set to open the regular season on Thursday at Wittenberg-Birnamwood.

Gillett's Sydney Young, right, dribbles the ball up the court as Suring's Kylee Stelzer defends during a game in 2018 in Gillett. Young and the Tigers have big aspirations coming into the season, while Stelzer and the Eagles are needing other players to step up.

Oconto Falls

Heading into the new season, Oconto Falls will have to replace several players from last year’s squad that finished 12-12 overall and 8-10 in the North Eastern Conference.

Coach Mike Kaczmarek does have a trio of seniors, Kari Albrecht, Natalie Brauer and Morgan Helmle, back to build around.

Albrecht made the NEC second team, while Brauer was an honorable mention last year.

Kaczmarek noted that the team’s challenge would be developing depth behind the three experienced seniors.

Juniors McKayla Goebel and Amelia Rice and sophomores Alexis Euclide and Hailey Peitersen figure to play into the Panthers’ success this winter.

“After losing all those influential and talented seniors last year, the dynamics of the team are already changing. It’s different not having them around after playing with them for the last three years,” said Albrecht.

“Our goal for this season is to be toward the top of our conference. We have the ability to be that good, it’s just a matter of getting every player motivated and believing that we are a good team and can beat a lot of other teams.”

The Panthers are set to open the season on Tuesday against Clintonville.

Suring

Back in the M&O, Suring gets ready for the season with a new coach in charge.

Mitchell Woulf takes over, and has some work to do with a limited amount of players with significant varsity experience back.

Last year, Suring posted a 10-12 overall record and finished 6-10 in conference play.

Juniors Kylee Stelzer and Paige Krueger are the only starters back from that team, but both were all-conference selections. Stelzer made the second team, while Krueger was an honorable mention.

Seniors Stephanie Huth and Jaden Bubolz and junior Kelsey Smith also have varsity experience and may be asked to fill some of the voids left by the departed seniors and Wagner who transferred.

“I think our team has to all get on the same page and commit to our offense,” said Stelzer on what it would take for the team to have a solid season. “Once we do that, we all work very well together.”

Suring tipped off its season on Tuesday against Tigerton.

Lena

Lena comes into the new season hoping some players can step up.

The Wildcats finished with three wins last season, earning one in conference play. Coach Tim Goldschmidt does not have any all-conference players back.

Senior Lillian Sellen and junior Brianna Spratlin each return with starting experience, while seniors Lilia Shallow and Lily Potter and juniors Chloe Potter and Kennedy Marquardt also have varsity experience.

“We will be a young group in a very good conference,” said Goldschmidt. “Just looking to compete and make strides to better our program moving forward.”

Lena will open the season on Thursday at Gresham.

OCONTO FALLS — The Oconto Falls High School boys basketball team enters the season under a new head coach and with a new attitude.

Gary Regal, the long-time head coach at Suring, takes over the same position for the Panthers.

"Expectations are to work hard every day and setting a new mental mindset," said Regal. "I expect us to defend and take care of the ball from day one."

Oconto Falls lost a couple solid seniors from last year's team that went 5-19 overall and 2-16 in the North Eastern Conference, but also returns several talented upperclassmen.

Senior Mitchell Manns will lead the team on the court after making the honorable mention all-conference team last season.

Joey Walters, Zach Parsons and Jarod Parsons also are back to give Regal some seniors to turn to for leadership.

"We just need to start playing some ball with each other to start to gain some chemistry," said Manns on how the team will start to click under a new head coach.

One thing that plagued the Panthers last season was coming up short in tight games.

Regal's emphasis on tough defense could help swing some of those tight games in Oconto Falls' favor this season.

"The key for us winning our close games will be having intense defense throughout the entire game," said Manns.

Oconto Falls will host Coleman on Dec. 3 to open the regular season.

Conference, Gillett will also need some new players to step up.

Coach Russell Long needs to replace a pair of all-conference players from last season, when Gillett went 9-14 overall and 6-10 in the M&O.

The coach can turn to a quartet of seniors, Logan Block, Anthony Carroll, Wyatt Herzog and Elijah Framnes to fill the some of the voids.

"Overall player numbers, and lack of players with experience off the bench might create issues at times," said Long. "However, we return four seniors who all started at times throughout last season."

Sophomore Jack Baer also got some varsity experience last year and could fill a larger role this season.

Gillett opens the regular season on Dec. 5 against St. Thomas Aquinas Academy.

Suring

Like Oconto Falls, Suring also enters the season under the direction of a new head coach.

Chris Geniesse takes over, hoping to continue the success that the team had last year. The Eagles are coming off a 19-6 season in which they went 12-4 in conference play.

Both of the team's all-conference players, including M&O Player of the Year Mitchell Stegeman, graduated, so new players will need to step up.

Senior Jayden Geniesse is the only starter back for the Eagles, but seniors Dequez Sepulveda and Duncan Breed also are back with valuable varsity experience.

"My expectations for the season are very high for my athletes," said Chris Geniesse. "Our locker room is full of a surplus of unproven talent. I feel very good about the amount of work the guys have put in throughout the summer, and I think it will show early season."

"Our biggest obstacle will be our lack of varsity experience. My guys are determined to prove how good they can be and how far hard work and perseverance can really take them."

The Eagles are scheduled to get the season rolling on Nov. 26 hosting Wabeno/Laona.

Lena

Lena is coming off a 6-17 season that included a 5-11 run through the M&O, but has high expectations for this winter with a roster full of players with plenty of varsity experience.

Seniors Colby Borchert, Simon Gard and Trenton Telford and sophomores Logan Shallow and Max Beyer are all back from last year's starting lineup for coach Fritz Weidner.

Beyer was an honorable mention selection as a freshman last year.

Junior Ralph Comins and sophomores Mason Simonson and Blayden Anderson also have varsity experience, while sophomore Lane Whiting and freshmen Josh Kristof and Jake Belognia could also serve roles for the team.

Borchert said the key to a solid season on the court starts with working as a team. "We also want to be a tough defensive team and have consistent scorers. We would like to have a good enough record to have a home playoff game or two."

The Wildcats open the season on the road against Stockbridge. Lena's first game isn't until Dec. 13.
