Road work expected this summer on highways 22, 32

By NEW MEDIA STAFF

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) Northeast Region has two state highway construction projects scheduled in calendar year 2021. The list includes all WisDOT Northeast Region projects on interstates, the United States highway system and the Wisconsin state highway system.

A 6.7-mile stretch of state Highway 22 is scheduled to be resurfaced from U.S. 141 to U.S. 41 in the towns of Stiles and Oconto. The project is expected to take 45 working days from early July to early September 2021.

The work includes replacing drainage structures and widening the paved shoulders. Crews are also expected to work on the drainage structures in the roundabouts at the U.S. 41-Highway 22 interchange, closing the southbound ramp from U.S. 41 to state Highway 22 for about three days.

Portions of the project will be completed under traffic via flagging operations and/or temporary traffic signals. While work is being completed on the drainage structures along state Highway 22, a detour will be in place for about 30 working days.

The DOT has also scheduled resurfacing of state Highway 32 from the intersection with state Highway 22 in the City of Gillett to Trinity Church Road in the Town of Maple Valley, a distance of about 7 miles.

The work is scheduled to run from July through August and involve mill and overlay of the highway, minor grubbing, minor curb and gutter repair, pavement markings and rumble strips.

State Highway 32 is expected to remain open with flagging operations during work hours.

In-construction weekly updates can be found online at <https://projects.511wi.gov/weeklyupdates-ne/>

This is a tentative listing, and additional projects may be added based on funding levels. All construction dates are subject to change and weather dependent.

Drug, traffic sweep results in eight arrests, numerous citations

Eight arrests and a number of other referrals were made March 26 during a special criminal interdiction operation aimed at reducing drug activity and other criminal violations within Oconto County.

According to a news release from Sheriff Todd Skarban, the operation focused on the cities of Oconto Falls, Gillett and Oconto, along with the towns of Stiles, Oconto Falls, Morgan, Gillett and Underhill, with the assistance of several agencies.

As a result of this operation, 172 traffic stops were conducted with 183 warnings issued and 54 citations issued. Further, there were 41 K-9 deployments with 25 positive K-9 indications and 16 negative K-9 indications.

The arrests were for possession of a Schedule II narcotic, fleeing an officer, possession of methamphetamine, recklessly endangering safety, possession of THC, operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated and bail jumping. One person was apprehended for a probation violation.

The citations, arrests and criminal referrals are being prosecuted by the Oconto County District Attorney's Office.

The sheriff's office was assisted by the following agencies in partnership with the Northeast Tri-County Drug Enforcement Group: the Oconto, Gillett, Lena and Oconto Falls police departments; sheriff's offices from Shawano, Marinette, Forest, Florence and Menominee counties in Wisconsin; the Menominee County, Michigan, Sheriff's Office; and the Wisconsin State Patrol.

"The Oconto County Sheriff's Office is committed to promoting a safe, healthy, and drug free community. We ask for your assistance in reporting any tips on the illegal sales and distribution of narcotics within our communities," Skarban said. "You may report this activity by calling 920-834-6900 and remain anonymous."

The sheriff said his department also wants anyone who is struggling with addiction to seek help and begin recovery, and he recommended that residents of Oconto County call 920-834-7000 for information.

Don't think of her as gone away, her journey has just begun. Life holds so many facets, this Earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears. In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and no years.

Think of how she must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but Think of her as living in the hearts she

OBITUARIES

Jerry E. Hasenberg Jr.

Jerry E. Hasenberg Jr., 47, of Suring, passed away unexpectedly, while doing the work that he loved, on Thursday, April 1, 2021. Jerry was born July 17, 1973, to Gerald Sr. and Patricia (Kulig) Hasenberg. He graduated from Suring High School with the Class of 1991 and went on to attend UW-Stevens Point, where he received a degree in Natural Resource Management. After college, Jerry began his career as an arborist working various jobs throughout the years, including TruGreen, Ranger Services and the City of Appleton; he currently worked for the City of De Pere. He further enjoyed this passion for trees and met and helped countless others by doing side jobs. On Aug. 22, 2020, Jerry married Vanessa Giese at Waubesa Lake Lodge, and they started their lives as husband and wife in Hickory, where he surprised her and the boys with a beautiful outdoor light display to celebrate their first Christmas as a family. Jerry appreciated this opportunity to help with raising the boys and took pride in being a role model for them, which made his wife love him even more. He has left an unforgettable impact on their lives, and they are so thankful for all the laughs, snuggles, coaching, bike-fixing, math-tutoring, Mario Kart and Mexican Train playing, and especially riding the 4-wheeler with him in winter while Jerry sang his “Mr. Plow” song.

Jerry was a compassionate man and valued all his time with family and friends. He touched so many lives with his sense of humor and kind regard for others. He was a man you were lucky to know and proud to call a friend, a relative, a stepdad or an exceptional husband.

Jerry enjoyed sports throughout his life. He played hockey, baseball, softball, basketball, football and still holds the record for 300 meter hurdles in track. He enjoyed golfing, playing bags and most recently curling with his buddies from the Appleton Curling Club. He especially enjoyed pontoon boat rides on Shay Lake, the start of his spring training camp in the yard with the boys, and anything including math or keeping stats.

Jerry is survived by his wife, Vanessa; three stepsons, Garret, Carson and Creed; parents, Jerry and Pat; two brothers, David (Ivana) and Glen (Kayla); Granny Bernie Hasenberg; mother- and father-in-law, Ruth and Steve Giese; brother-in-law, Jeremy Giese. He is further survived by aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, his godchildren, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents and cousin, Taylor Nicole Bosley.

Visitation will be held on Friday, April 9, 2021, at St. John Lutheran Church in Hayes from noon until the funeral service at 4 p.m. with Pastor Bill Trosien and Pastor Nick Buchholz officiating. Gruetzmacher Funeral Home in Suring is assisting the family with arrangements. Online condolences can be expressed at www.gruetzmacherfuneralhome.com.

In lieu of flowers, the family encourages you to plant a tree in honor of Jerry’s life.

The family would like to give sincere thanks for the efforts given by his arborist family from the City of DePere and DePere Police and Fire Rescue.

Julie A. Racine-Eckberg

On March 31, 2021, at 6:37 p.m., heaven received another angel. Julie A. Racine-Eckberg, 54, was born on Oct. 11, 1966, in Green Bay to the late Stanley and Ruth (Fitt) Racine. Julie’s mother, Ruth, died when she was very young, and her aunt, Stella Kennin, lovingly raised her. She was a 1985 graduate of Oconto Falls High School. Julie was employed at Humana for almost 20 years. She and Mike first started dating in 1997, and Mike finally convinced her to marry him on June 16, 2012. Julie had a big heart and was always worried about others over herself. She was an optimistic, strong and loyal person. Julie enjoyed traveling and going to wineries. She loved everything ’80s and Ford Mustangs. No matter what the day brought, she always had to get her steps in. Julie bravely fought her 10-year battle with breast cancer and will be loved and missed by all.

She is survived by her loving husband, Mike; stepsons, Nathan (Melissa) Eckberg and their daughter, Violet; Josh (Connie) Eckberg; sister, Barbara (Larry VanVleet) Thompson; nieces, Carrie (Chad) Kleinschmidt, and their children, Lyla, Lydia and Lucy; Kristin Thompson; nephews, Jacob Thompson and Shawn Thompson; brother-in-law, Bob (Terri) Eckberg; sisters-in-law, Julie Eckberg and Cathy Eckberg; and many other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a baby sister, Kathrine Racine; brother-in-law, Steven Eckberg; uncles, Francis, Joseph and Leo Fitt.

Friends called at the Proko-Wall Funeral Home, 1630 E. Mason St., on Wednesday, April 7, 2021, from 4-8 p.m. A time for sharing of memories took place at 7 p.m. Visitation continued Thursday at St. Matthew Catholic Church, 130 St. Matthew St., from 10 a.m. until the time of Mass at 11 a.m. Thursday at the church with Rev. Bob Kabat officiating. Burial will take place at St. Patrick’s Catholic Cemetery in Stiles. Online condolences may be expressed at www.prokowall.com.

In lieu of other expressions of sympathy, a memorial fund is being established.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the Vince Lombardi Cancer Center at Aurora Bay-Care Hospital and the Mayo Clinic for all of their care and compassion.

Also a heartfelt thank you to the “Zebras,” who were always there for Julie during her illness.

Highway 32 project website announced

The 10-mile project through Suring is scheduled for 2022

The Wisconsin Department of Transportation (WisDOT) Northeast Region announces a design project website is available to view proposed improvements on state Highway 32 in Oconto County. The public is invited to review the proposed project’s scope, schedule and traffic impacts on the new website and provide comment.

vide comment.

The project design website is available at <https://wisconsin.dot.gov/Pages/projects/by-region/ne/32oconto/default.aspx>

WisDOT is proposing to improve 10 miles of the highway from Trinity Church Road through the village of Suring to County AA in the town of Breed during the spring and summer of 2022.

Project improvements include new asphalt pavement, a wider paved shoulder, replacement and repair of culverts, and replacement of sidewalk curb ramps and guardrails, along with spot repairs or replacements of the storm sewer in Suring.

Design is currently underway, with final plans expected later this year. No real estate acquisition will be required for this project. Proposed traffic impacts include a short-term detour of state Highway 32 and lane closures.

The website includes design displays and construction maps, a public handout and options to provide comment — including a downloadable public comment form with a pre-paid mailer. Project comments can also be submitted via email or calling project contacts on the website. No in-person public meeting will be held for this project at this time due to current health concerns and to help stop the spread of COVID.

The return of Gillett's Eggstravaganza

And they're off! First- through sixth-graders chase after plastic eggs to exchange for Easter candy during the Eggstravaganza April 3 at Hillside Assembly in Gillett.

Youngsters play games, chase for eggs, get candy and an Easter message

"One - two - three - Monkey!" Despite assistant children's director Brian Wilson's admonition that sometimes he says funny things and they should jump after "One - two - three - go," some of the children still started over the line at the "monkey" April 3 at the Hillside Assembly Eggstravaganza in Gillett.

After everyone laughed, Wilson gave the correct instruction and the hunt was on. A few minutes later, the kids had bags full of plastic eggs to exchange for candy back inside the church.

About 150 parents and their kids registered for the event, which began with games inside the church's fellowship hall — such as Easter basket-ball, cross bowling, a Frisbee toss and tic-tac-toe with tennis balls and Velcro.

After an holiday-themed presentation, the Easter Bunny led the group outside, where kids in first through sixth grade had a field full of eggs to choose from. The younger children had a separate, less frenetic chase.

The event was the return of a Gillett area tradition after last year's hunt was canceled because of COVID concerns.

Health department issues mask advisory after court decision

The Shawano-Menominee Counties Public Health Department wasted little time issuing a health advisory that stipulates that every person age 5 and older should wear a face covering or mask, after the Wisconsin Supreme Court ruled against Gov. Tony Evers' extension of a statewide mask mandate beyond 60 days.

As of March 25, 25.6% of Shawano County residents have received at least one dose of the vaccine, according to the health department, and 15.7% have completed the vaccine series. Officials are saying that they're trying to reach the goal of vaccinating 80% of the community, which they said means folks will be able to return to a life before COVID-19.

The following does not meet CDC requirements for mask wearing, according to the health department:

- Masks worn in a way that does not cover both the mouth and nose
- Face shields or goggles as a substitute for masks. Goggles or other eye protection may be used in addition to a mask. Face shields and goggles are used to protect the eyes of the person wearing it.

The health department stated that the advisory should not be used as justification to harass or harm another person who is either wearing or not wearing a face covering. Individuals may have disabilities or other conditions that prohibit them from wearing masks.

The advisory remains in effect until further notice, according to the health department.

Gresham scholarship fund reaches $1M

Qualifying seniors will be awarded $3,250 for their continued education

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

In late fall of 2020, the Gresham Scholarship Fund reached $1 million.

"When we first started, I was encouraged to see the fund grow to $100,000," said Bob Klopke, president and one of the founding board members of the Gresham Scholarship Fund. "With it getting there so fast, I knew we could get to $1 million."

The fund, created 20 years ago, started by giving $400 scholarships to graduating seniors who qualified. That number has grown to $3,250 in 2021.

That's more than half again last year's $2,000 award to qualifying graduates.

"This was an unusual jump for us," said Klopke, who has served as Gresham Community School's principal in the past. "But members on the board felt it was necessary."

In order to qualify for the scholarship, graduating seniors need to apply online, have a 2.0 grade point average or better, and have a plan to further their education. The scholarship will be awarded after graduates finish the first semester of their continued education.

The Gresham School District has an average of 19 students in each class. With this number in place, typically 50% of the graduating class qualify and accept the scholarship.

When Klopke was principal, he would experience parents and grandparents coming up to him and handing him checks to be used for the fund. This is when Klopke realized that trust had been built within the community.

"It was a good feeling having the community supporting this," said Klopke. "Being available to meet with those donors was a big thing for the community, I think."

The awarded scholarship money is expected to remain at $3,250 for the near future.

"We don't want to go down in how much we are putting into the scholarship, so the $3,250 will remain consistent for the near future," said Klopke.

The money that has been donated to the scholarship fund has come from graduates and the community around the school. Gresham scholarship dinners are also held annually with proceeds going to the fund.

The scholarship funds are held by the Shawano Area Community Foundation, which is under the umbrella of the Community Foundation for the Fox Valley Region.

This money is then invested in order to expand it. With this money, the graduating seniors have an opportunity to open a better future for themselves and ultimately get a head start on the rest of their lives.

Klopke and those in charge of the fund have noticed that even without a lot of big donations, that the smaller donations do in fact make a difference.

"Getting to $1 million really shows the power of what people can do when they can't afford to donate a lot," said Klopke. "Even though small donations come in, it adds up to a lot."

With those in the community being supportive of the fund and donating what they can, Klopke wanted to extend his appreciation, not only for donating, but also assisting in getting these seniors started on the right track.

"We are just very grateful for all those who have helped out and contributed," he said. "We hope that the students value this money, and we hope that it can help them start a better life."

Last State Restricted Silver Walking Liberty Bank Rolls go to WI residents

Wisconsin residents get first dibs on last remaining Bank Rolls loaded with U.S. Gov't issued Silver Walking Liberties dating back to the early 1900's some worth up to 100 times their face value for just the $39 minimum set for state residents - non state residents must pay $118 per coin if any remain after 2-day deadline

► STATE DISTRIBUTION: A strict limit of 4 State Restricted Bank Rolls per WI resident has been imposed WISCONSIN - "It's a miracle these State Restricted Bank Rolls even exist. That's why Hotline Operators are bracing for the flood of calls," said Laura Lynne, U.S. Coin and Currency Director for the National Mint and Treasury.

For the next 2 days the last remaining State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls loaded with rarely seen U.S. Gov't issued Silver Walking Liberties are actually being handed over to Wisconsin residents who call the State Toll-Free Hotlines listed in today's newspaper publication.

And here's the best part. If you are a resident of the state of Wisconsin you cover only the $39 per coin state minimum set by the private National Mint and Treasury, that's fifteen rarely seen U.S. Gov't issued Silver Walking Liberties worth up to 100 times their face value for just $585 which is a real steal because non state residents must pay $118 per coin which totals $1,770 if any coins remain after the 2-day deadline.

"Recently National Mint and Treasury spoke with a retired Treasurer of the United States of America who said 'In all my years as Treasurer I've only ever seen a handful of these rarely seen Silver Walking Liberties issued by the U.S. Gov't back in the early 1900's. But to actually find them sealed away in State Restricted Bank Rolls still in pristine condition is like finding buried treasure. So anyone lucky enough to get their hands on these Bank Rolls had better hold on to them," Lynne said.

JACKPOT: Imagine finding the 1919-D Silver Walking Liberty shown above worth thousands of dollars in collector value in one of these unsearched Bank Rolls. There are never any guarantees, but Wisconsin residents who get their hands on these State Restricted Bank Rolls will be the really lucky ones because even more common coins are still worth up to $115 - $825 in collector value.

"Now that the State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls are being offered up we won't be surprised if thousands of Wisconsin residents claim the maximum limit allowed of 4 Bank Rolls per resident before they're all gone," said Lynne.

"That's because the dates and mint marks of the U.S. Gov't issued Silver Walking Liberty Half Dollars sealed away inside the State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls have never been searched. But, we do know that some of these coins date clear back to the early 1900's and are worth up to 100 times their face value, so there is no telling what Wisconsin residents will find until they sort through all the coins," Lynne went on to say.

The only thing Wisconsin residents need to do is call the State Toll-Free Hotlines printed in today's newspaper publication before the 2-day order deadline ends.

"Rarely seen U.S. Gov't issued silver coins like these are highly sought after, but we've never seen anything like this before. According to The Official Red Book, a Guide Book of United States Coins many Silver Walking Liberty Half Dollars are

VALUABLE:

It's like a treasure hunt - there's no telling what you'll find. That's because the dates and mint marks of the fifteen U.S.

Gov't issued coins sealed away inside these State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls have never been searched. All we know is some of the coins are worth up to 100 times their face value.

now worth $115 - $825 each in collector value," Lynne said.

"So just imagine how much these last remaining, unsearched State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls could be worth someday. Remember, these are not ordinary coins - these rarely seen coins date clear back to the early 1900's. In fact, these coins have been forever retired by the U.S. Gov't, and you can only get them rolled this way directly from the National Mint and Treasury because these are the only State Restricted Bank Rolls known to exist," said Lynne.

"We're guessing thousands of Wisconsin residents will be taking the maximum limit of 4 Bank Rolls because they make such amazing gifts for any occasion for children, parents, grandparents, friends and loved ones," Lynne continued.

"We know the phones will be ringing off the hook. That's why hundreds of Hotline Operators are standing by to answer the phones beginning at 8:30am this morning. We're going to do our best, but with just 2 days to answer all the calls it won't be easy. So make sure to tell everyone to keep calling if all operators are busy. We'll do our best to answer them all," Lynne said.

"That's why the private National Mint and Treasury set up the State Toll-Free Hotlines in order to make sure Wisconsin residents get the State Restricted Bank Rolls before they're all gone," she said.

The only thing readers of today's newspaper publication need to do is make sure they are a resident of the state of Wisconsin and call the State Toll-Free Hotlines before the 2-day deadline ends midnight tomorrow. ■

IMPORTANT: The dates and mint marks of the U.S. Gov't issued Silver Walking Liberties sealed away inside the State of Wisconsin Restricted Bank Rolls have never been searched. Coin values always fluctuate and they are never any guarantees, but any of the scarce coins shown below, regardless of their value that residents may find inside the sealed Bank Rolls are theirs to keep.

Poetry in the meter of the oral tradition

"All music is poetry," Louis V. Clark III stated. "I write in a musical manner. I hear drums in my head."

I asked the Oneida Nation of Wisconsin tribal member to describe his craft in honor of April being Nation Poetry Month. Clark, a retired blue-collar worker who penned poems and stories throughout his life, began a second career as a published man of letters within the past decade.

"I'm very blessed," Clark reflected, but that came after a lifetime of discrimination against him for being a Native American in an intolerant world. "I had to handle a lot of racism, but I kept writing. I did it for me. I put my feelings down on paper to cleanse myself."

Clark, who spent 19 years coaching his six children through little league alongside his wife, Debbie, entered the publishing world covering sports stories for The Omro Herald. Then in 2010, he answered a call for poetry in a newspaper, which resulted in his meeting James Parins from the Sequoyah

National Research Center at the University of Arkansas. Clark learned Parins was the grandson of former Green Bay Packers' President Robert J. Parins, and the two men bonded over Clark's work and stories about their shared alma mater, West De Pere High School.

In 2011, Sequoyah published Clark's first chapbook,

"Two Shoes," which meant the poet had to promote his book in public events. Quick to use humor, Clark relayed, "The first thing I did was go out and purchase a suit jacket with elbow patches on it. I at least wanted to look the part."

Clark needn't have worried about the fragility of his success, as soon over a thousand copies of his book were in print and he was speaking regularly before audiences of all ages and walks of life. In 2012, he won an Oneida Nation Arts Program Fellowship. By 2014, Clark was in such demand that he was able to move his reading before the Wisconsin Fellowship of Poets Annual Convention in Green Bay to enable him to watch his son pitch for Lawrence University's baseball team.

After the reading, Clark was asked to turn his remarks about his life's story into the book "How to Be an Indian in the 21st Century," which Wisconsin Historical Society Press published in 2017. The press took a chance on Clark, making his book the first poetry collection they'd published after more than a century and a half in the business. Their efforts were rewarded with a Midwest Booksellers Choice Award, which Clark both deserved and appreciated but still surprised him.

"I don't write with some grandiose themes," he said. "Stuff gets in my head and it has to get out."

In 2019, Wisconsin Historical Society Press doubled down on Clark, publishing "Rebel Poet," whose publicity included a National Public Radio interview and a public reading aired on PBS. Like his earlier work, the new book collects cathartic stories in verse that run the gamut of experiences. There's power in his words, drawing empathy from his readers with every rhyming couplet or, as Clark puts it, "I meet life and I accept it."

Thinking nationally, Clark noted that poetry is making a comeback in American society. "I think you saw it with the last inauguration," recognizing how our country was taken with the inaugural National Youth Poet Laureate Amanda Gorman's performance of "The Hill We Climb."

Still, for Clark, American poetry is a practice older than America. "I think Oneida elders put things to meter so they would remember the stories. In my own way, I'm perpetuating the oral tradition."

For Clark, "Poetry is a gift from the Creator. It's in my head and it goes to my hand."

While Clark's poetry describes volatility, he remembers his parents as loving providers despite their perchance for violence. He fondly recalled how calm came to the Clark household in the summer.

"During pow wow time, I could hear drums played at the Oneida ball diamond. We lived nearby, and I could hear them from my bed at night. There were no fights and I felt safe." Clark continued, "I fell in love with the meter of those drums. It felt secure. Now I try to write to make myself feel secure."

Marion confident under direction of new coach

Mustangs have 2 all-conference players back from 2019

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Marion High School baseball team comes into the spring season under the direction of a new head coach and ready to compete for a Central Wisconsin Conference-North Division title.

Joe Stuhr is the team's new coach and he has a strong core of upperclassmen to build around this spring.

"I believe that we have a team that can compete for the top 1-3 positions in the conference," said Stuhr.

"I feel we are in a good spot with pitching depth, as long as the young guys keep developing and the juniors and seniors can get the bugs worked out from not having a high school or Legion season a year ago."

Leading the way will be senior Carter Goke (pitcher, infield) and junior Alex Zimmerman (catcher, pitcher, infield), who each landed on the CWC-North second team in 2019.

Senior Koy Brei (first base, pitcher, outfield) and junior Ethan Scheef (outfield, catcher) also have ample varsity experience.

"I definitely think we can complete for a conference title this year," said Zimmerman. "It sucks from not being able to play last year and we lost a lot of experience and practice especially, which makes it hard for the young freshmen and sophomores but the team looks good and the young guys are really fitting in good and they will definitely be a big part of our team this year."

"So just making sure they feel comfortable and ready to play on the big field will be what we need to focus on the most probably, but once they're comfortable and are able to work with the older guys, we're gonna be a great team and definitely one of the best, if not the best in the conference."

Senior Myles Peterson (infield), sophomores Jaden Stuhr (pitcher, outfield, first base) and Nick Malueg (outfield) and freshmen Ryan Malueg (catcher, pitcher infield), Jay Brei (infield, pitcher) and Jackson Krohn (outfield, infield) are among the players that could help fill out the lineup.

Leonhard says he has 'unfinished business' at Wisconsin

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wisconsin defensive coordinator Jim Leonhard says he has unfinished business at his alma mater and wouldn't have felt right leaving after a pandemic-shortened season, even for an opportunity as tempting as his home state's NFL team.

Leonhard was a prime candidate for the Green Bay Packers' defensive coordinator position and had been offered the job according to multiple reports, but opted to return for a sixth season on Wisconsin coach Paul Chryst's staff. The Packers instead hired Joe Barry as defensive coordinator.

"I love Madison," Leonhard said. "To me, there's some unfinished business with the University of Wisconsin. I love this group of kids and want to continue to develop them. With COVID being the way it was last year, I'd have felt a specific way about myself having left after that season."

Leonhard aimed high as he specified the nature of his unfinished business at Wisconsin, which opened spring practice this week.

"I came here wanting to win a national championship, I came here wanting to win the Big Ten as a player," said Leonhard, who played safety for the Badgers from 2001-04 before starting a 10-year NFL career.

"Nothing's changed as a coach. We haven't done that since I've been back. The goals haven't changed. I feel like we have a group that can accomplish that."

Wisconsin struggled to a 4-3 record last year but ranked fifth nationally in total defense and ninth in scoring defense.

Wisconsin has finished in the top five in total defense and top 10 in total defense in three of Leonhard's four seasons as defensive coordinator.

Leonhard acknowledged the Green Bay situation was particularly enticing.

"They're right on the fringe of a Super Bowl and have been for a while now," Leonhard said. "Definitely a difficult decision to have to make."

Eagles hope to continue building program

A young Menominee Indian High School softball team has a simple expectation for the upcoming season — to improve.

When Menominee Indian was on the field last in 2019, the team won a pair of games. The Eagles hadn't won a game the two seasons prior to that.

"We hope to continue to build a strong softball culture in this community," said coach Miranda Roland.

"A challenge for this season is the amount of youth on the team. Almost half the team will consist of freshmen, which is a blessing and a curse. We have the ability to mold and develop these young players into exactly what we need as a program, but it is young ladies playing against strong experienced players."

Senior Selena O'Kimosh will lead the team after landing on the Central Wisconsin Conference-East Division honorable mention team as a sophomore. She will serve as the team's top pitcher, and play in the infield when not in the circle.

Helping round out the infield will be senior Arvilla James, junior Alexis Wilber and sophomore Aniya Peters.

The rest of the lineup will primarily be first-time players at the high school level.

"As a senior this year, my plan is to push my team, and be the best leader I can be for them," said O'Kimosh, "and hold them up the best that I am able to this year, especially with the young team that we have this year."

4 area teams learn postseason seeds and matchups

By NEW MEDIA STAFF

Alternate fall season volleyball postseason seeds were announced for Gresham, Tigerton, Bowler and Menominee Indian.

There will be two divisions for the playoffs.

Gresham earned the No. 1 seed in its four-team Division 2 regional pod.

The Wildcats will take on fourth-seeded Elcho.

In the same pod, Tigerton picked up the No. 2 seed and will take on No. 3 Bowler.

All regional matches will be played April 10. Because Gresham got the top seed, it will host the regional matches.

The Gresham, Elcho match will start at 1 p.m., with Tigerton playing Bowler at 4 p.m. The winners will play in the regional final at 7:30 p.m.

Menominee Indian is a No. 3 seed in its Division 2 regional pod. The Eagles will take on second-seeded Oneida Nation at 4 p.m.

Top-seeded Kewaunee will battle No. 4 Algoma in the other regional matchup at 1 p.m. Games will be played at Kewaunee High School.

The winner of each regional final will advance to sectionals, which will be played April 13.

The sectional winners will play state semifinal matches on April 15 before the state championship on April 17. The state championship will be played at Kaukauna High School.

Packers to face Chiefs in additional regular-season game in 2021

Following approval from NFL clubs at a virtual league meeting March 30, the enhanced NFL season schedule will go into effect in 2021 with each team playing 17 regular-season games and three preseason games.

The new scheduling format will see each team host 10 games overall — either nine regular-season games and one preseason game or eight regular-season games and two preseason games.

Moving to 17 regular-season games will provide fans an extra week of regular-season NFL action, with the added matchup featuring teams from opposing conferences that finished in the same place within their division in the previous season. The AFC was determined to host the extra game in 2021, and with the NFC North matching up with the AFC West, the Packers will face the Kansas City Chiefs this coming season in Kansas City.

Because Lambeau Field will not host an additional game this season, both gold and green package season ticket holders will receive their regular allotment of games this year. While green package invoices are not affected, gold package invoices will be updated accordingly on ticket holders' online accounts to reflect that no extra game will take place at Lambeau Field this year.

Gold package season ticket holders who have already paid their invoices for this season will soon receive a refund of the difference between the cost of the regular-season and pre-season game. Those who haven't yet paid their invoices will be able to pay the updated invoice on their online account.

Any gold package season ticket holder who received the invoice in the mail and was planning to mail in their payment can pay the adjusted amount due: end zone seats are $58 for preseason, $118 for regular season; south end zone, 700 level are $61 for preseason, $121 for regular season; south end zone, 600 level are $64 for preseason, $129 for regular season; end zone to the 20-yard line are $69 for preseason, $134 for regular season; between the 20-yard lines are $74 for preseason, $149 for regular season.

Updated invoices will be mailed to gold package season ticket holders who have not yet paid their invoices.

The official 2021 schedule, with playing dates and times, will be announced later this spring. With the additional regular-season game, Super Bowl LVI at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles will take place on Sunday, Feb. 13, 2022.

Oconto Falls needs players to step up on diamond as new coach takes over

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Oconto Falls High School softball prepares for the spring season with a new head coach leading the way and needs some first-time varsity players to step up.

Jen Thompson is the team's new coach after serving as the school's junior varsity coach the past three seasons. Thompson replaces Cory Albrecht, who led the Panthers to a third-place finish in the North Eastern Conference in 2019.

Thompson says the team will have big goals this spring, but it needs some inexperienced varsity players to make an impact right from the start of the season.

"With only four returning varsity players, we will be relying on our younger players to fill some big shoes for our season this year," said Thompson. "We have big goals, and when they step out on the field for the first time, we will start achieving those goals."

In 2019, Oconto Falls had seven all-conference players. After graduating two classes, only one of those players, senior Taylor Ash, is back.

Ash was an honorable mention in her sophomore season. She is expected to split time between shortstop and third base this spring.

"I try to keep my teammates motivated and focused during our practices," said Ash on how she helps lead the team. "We will have a younger team this year, so the returning varsity players will have to work hard to set a good example."

Helping Ash set a good example will be seniors McKayla Goebel, Jayden Arndt and Abbi Remic.

Oconto Falls' Abbi Remic runs toward home plate during a North Eastern Conference clash against Clintonville on May 3, 2019, in Clintonville. Remic is one of just four experienced players back for Oconto Falls this spring.

FILE | NEW MEDIA

Goebel will play catcher, but she can play all over the field. Arndt will spend time on the pitching mound and at first base. Remic will be the team's primary centerfielder.

Thompson wouldn't commit to naming any first-time varsity athletes who could make big impacts this season, but she noted, "With a whole new team, the possibilities are endless."

After its strong regular season in 2019, Oconto Falls picked up a No. 3 seed for the postseason and won a Division 2 regional title.

The Panthers were eliminated by top-seeded Seymour in a sectional semifinal clash. Seymour went on to win the state title.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

St. Norbert

Oconto Falls High School graduate Emily Gonnering placed in four throwing events for the St. Norbert College women's track and field team during the Private College Championships on April 1.

Her top finish came in discus, where she placed seventh after a top throw of 31.83 meters.

Gonnering claimed 17th in the javelin (19.58), 21st in the hammer throw (26.98) and 22nd in shot put (8.02).

Oconto Falls grad Mason Sefcik pitched during a win for the St. Norbert baseball team April 3.

In a 9-4 win in the first game of a doubleheader against Lawrence University, Sefcik came on in relief and got eight outs. He walked three batters and allowed two hits, but didn't surrender a run.

UW-Stevens Point

Oconto Falls graduate Mitchell

Manns helped the UW-Stevens Point baseball team to a 7-2 win over UW-Oshkosh on March 29. Manns was the starting catcher for the contest.

Manns laid down a sacrifice bunt to start his day at the plate. He reached on a fielder's choice in his second plate appearance and then scored.

Lena/STAA co-op optimistic heading into spring season

After a year off, Lena/St. Thomas Aquinas Academy co-op track and field coach Fritz Weidner isn't 100% sure what to expect going into the spring season. What the coach does know for certain is that he has a roster full of talented athletes.

Leading the way on the girls side is senior Kennedy Marquardt, who has signed a letter of intent to St. Norbert College, where she'll be continuing her track career. The last time the team competed in 2019, Marquardt qualified for sectionals in four events, the long jump, 100-, 200- and 400-meter dashes.

"Even though I am going on to compete in college, this season means more to me than anything. With missing our season last year due to Covid, this year is even more important," said Marquardt.

"I hope to teach my teammates to work hard in every practice and meet because good results will come. I also just want to encourage everyone to stay positive, never give up, and work hard to achieve their goals, because track and field is all what you make of it. Even though track and field is more of an individual sport, I still love being on a team and supporting everyone's success."

Junior sprinter Ruth Alberts also is back after competing at sectionals in 2019. She was a part of the 4X100 and 4X200 relay teams.

Junior Nadia Keene is another sprinter back on the girls side. Junior Samara Van Ark will help lead the distance runners, while junior Alex Kristof guides the throwers.

The boys team also has a couple 2019 sectional qualifiers back on the roster.

Juniors Max Beyer and Norman Aguilar are intermediate distance runners for the Wildcats. Beyer helped form the 4x800 sectional-qualifying relay team, while Aguilar was involved with the 4X100, 4X200 and 4X400 relay teams. Senior Kevin Chang (sprints, pole vault) was an alternate on the 4X100 and 4X200 relays.

Senior Frank DesJarlais is the most experienced boys thrower back, while junior Braeden Neta joins the sprinter group.

Weidner also has a number of inexperienced varsity athletes that he's excited about moving forward.

Helping round out the girls roster will be junior Kortney Kosch (pole vault, sprints). Making their high school track and field debuts will be sophomores Claire Brooks (sprints, intermediate distance, jumps), Natalie McNurlen (sprints, jumps), Lily Miske (sprints, intermediate distance), Destiny Hurning (sprints), Emily Peters (sprints, pole vault) and Elizabeth Weidner (sprints, jumps) and freshmen Alabama Lambert (sprints, intermediate distance) and Whitney Potter (sprints, hurdles).

Seniors Ralph Comins (sprints) and Miles Maloney (sprints, intermediate distance) and junior Franky Umentum (jumps, throws) will try and provide some leadership for the first-time boys varsity athletes. Sophomores Sam Marquardt (sprints, hurdles, jumps), Sidney Sylvester (sprints, jumps), Jake Belongia (sprints, hurdles, jumps), Jadyn Belongia (sprints, intermediate distance), Ayden Decoursin (sprints), Elijah Gott (throws) and Reed Hosking (sprints, intermediate distance) and freshman Colton Skrobel (throws) will be making their high school debuts.

Young, inexperienced Gillett/Suring co-op ready for the challenge ahead

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Gillett/Suring baseball co-op heads into the spring season needing players to step up in a hurry with a lack of experience back on the roster.

Junior Taron Haak, of Suring, is the team's lone player back with varsity experience. Knowing that, coach Joe Lojpersberger will rely on first-time varsity players in a big way in order to be competitive in the tough Marinette & Oconto Conference.

"Everybody coming into the program will need to make a significant contribution to the team due to lack of players and experience," said Lojpersberger.

Even despite the daunting task, Haak and Lojpersberger are eager for the season to begin.

"I think this year will be a very helpful year for us. We have a lot of young kids that need the experience and playing time," said Haak, who will pitch and play shortstop for the co-op. "Hopefully they learn a lot and we improve through the season."

"Some of the players have not played in 4-5 years, a lot of these players have never played on a regulation field," said Lojpersberger. "We will need to work quickly to get our skillsets up to the ability to compete with other schools in our conference. We look forward to the challenge!"

The coach added that the co-op has enough athletes to get the job done, and that it's more about adapting to the varsity level of play quickly than anything else.

Holiday, Bucks ink 4-year extension worth at least $134M

By STEVE MEGARGEE

The Associated Press

Milwaukee Bucks guard Jrue Holiday followed up his biggest game of the season by making a long-term commitment to his new team.

Holiday agreed to a four-year contract extension that would be worth at least $134 million if he exercises his option for the final season. The Bucks announced the agreement April 4.

"I'm a Buck for life," Holiday said in a video posted on the Bucks' Twitter account. "Just know that I'm glad to be a part of Bucks Nation. Let's do some big things, man. I'm really excited."

The announcement came one day after Holiday had a season-high 33 points as well as 11 assists and seven rebounds in a 129-128 victory at Sacramento. Holiday's performance enabled the Bucks to withstand the absence of reigning two-time MVP Giannis Antetokounmpo, who sat out with a sore left knee.

The move represents the latest step in the Bucks' heavy investment in their trio of Holiday, Antetokounmpo and two-time All-Star Khris Middleton as the franchise chases its first NBA title since 1971.

The Bucks posted the NBA's best regular-season record each of the last two seasons but lost in the Eastern Conference finals in 2019 and in the second round of the playoffs last year. Entering Sunday, Milwaukee owned a 32-17 record and was two games behind Philadelphia and Brooklyn in the East standings.

"Jrue is one of the top guards in the NBA and we are thrilled to sign him to this extension," Bucks general manager Jon Horst said in a statement. "Adding him to our team has made us better on both ends of the floor. He's an elite defender and an impactful offensive player with the ability to score, shoot and facilitate."

Holiday had a $26.7 million player option remaining for the 2021-21 season as part of the five-year, $126 million contract he signed with the New Orleans Pelicans in July 2017.

Under the terms of this deal, Holiday declines that option but receives base salaries of $30.1 million next season, $32.4 million in 2022-23 and $34.7 million in 2023-24. He also holds a $37 million option for 2024-25.

There are incentives that could push the total value of Holiday's deal to nearly $160 million.

The Bucks' investment in Holiday, Antetokounmpo and Middleton — even without incentives — totals $105 million in 2021-22, $113 million in 2022-23 and would be $120 million in 2023-24 if Middleton exercises a player option he has for that season.

At the time of the signing, the 30-year-old Holiday was averaging 17 points, 5.4 assists, 4.6 rebounds and 1.8 steals in his first season with the Bucks. He ranks second in the league in steals per game.

He missed 10 games earlier this season after testing positive for COVID-19 but has come on strong lately.

Holiday had scored at least 22 points in four straight games as of April 4. Since the All-Star break, he has averaged 20.8 points and has shot 54.1% overall and 44.3% from 3-point range.

Milwaukee paid a heavy price to acquire Holiday in the offseason as it attempted to strengthen the team in hopes of getting a long-term commitment from Antetokounmpo, who signed a five-year supermax extension worth a reported $228 million in December.

The Bucks gave up guards Eric Bledsoe and George Hill, first-round draft choice R.J. Hampton and two future first-round draft picks.

YOUR RIGHT TO KNOW

Record location fees invite abuses

It happens all the time. A member of the public or representative of the press will file a request under Wisconsin's open records law, which applies to all state and local government entities. Instead of records, the requester gets a bill.

"The city will require pre-payment in full before we begin fulfilling your request," read one such response, dated March 17, to a citizen requester by the assistant city attorney of Fond du Lac. "Please remit $642.42 to cover the above-referenced costs." The notice said this was just an estimate and, if necessary, "we will bill you for the additional cost."

Two weeks earlier, the same assistant city attorney demanded that the same citizen requester, Christine Brennan, pay $6,887.79 on top of the $1,000 she had already remitted to cover the cost of locating records in a different request.

Wisconsin's open records law, passed in 1981, allows records custodians to charge for the "actual, necessary and direct" cost of making and sending copies, as well as the "actual, necessary and direct" cost of locating them, if this latter charge exceeds $50. Even though these searches are supposed to be done by the lowest-paid employee capable of performing the task, they often add up to hundreds or even thousands of dollars, causing many requesters to walk away without receiving the records to which they are entitled.

In some cases, this may be the intended result.

Last November, the Wisconsin Examiner news website reported on a 2016 email it has obtained in which Wauwatosa Police Department Detective John Milotzky advised a colleague that "many departments combat the issue (of records requests) by charging a high price to fill those requests, so maybe that's something to look at in the future."

In years past, some custodians even charged requesters for the time it took them to pore over records looking for things to black out, until the state Supreme Court ruled in 2012 that this was not an allowable cost. Custodians are still finding ways to demand huge sums from people seeking public information.

In Fond du Lac, the $1,000 that citizen requester Brennan paid to obtain records regarding a proposed (and subsequently approved) park development project using public funds yielded a 2019 email from a city council member advising others involved in this process, "Please keep that we are in talks on this on the down low. Stakeholders should be the only people who know that these conversations are happening."

Officials who behave this way should not be able to escape accountability by making the cost of locating the records that prove their perfidy unaffordable.

Gov. Tony Evers, in his proposed executive budget, calls for raising the threshold at which custodians can charge location fees to $100. Adjusted for inflation, $50 in 1981 is nearly $150 today.

This welcome measure deserves bipartisan support, as it protects the ability of all citizens to obtain public records. But the Legislature should go further and consider ending location fees altogether. Their use invites abuse and creates a disincentive for custodians to efficiently maintain and retrieve records.

If a government office actually must spend $7,000 of staff time to locate records, perhaps it needs a better filing system.

Your Right to Know is a monthly column distributed by the Wisconsin Freedom of Information Council (wisfoic.org), a group dedicated to open government. Bill Lueders, the editor of The Progressive, is the council's president.

SALUTES

Thanks for successful supper

To the Editor:

The annual Lena Staff Spaghetti Supper was a huge success. Thank you to those of you who waited in line for our drive-thru event. We served about 520 people and raised over $3,800. Four hundred were served in the first hour. Due to the overwhelming turnout, we will be able to give $1,000 scholarships to three deserving seniors, as well as a $500 scholarship.

The staff would like to thank all those involved in making the event such a success. We could not have done it without the help of Shirley Kushava, who did most of the cooking. Denise Deihlmann along with the other kitchen staff were also a big help in the kitchen. We are also thankful to everyone on staff who chipped in and helped to make the event a success.

Our profit is largely in part because of the donations received from our community. Saputo Cheese donated string cheese to put in each order. Jagiello Dairy Farm LLC donated hamburger for the sauce. We also received meat donations from Thompson's County Market in Oconto and Pelkin's Piggly Wiggly in Coleman. Witt's Piggly Wiggly in Oconto Falls donated various grocery items to help defray costs.

We also want to thank all of you who came to support the event by driving through to pick up your meal. Hopefully we will be able to enjoy this event back in our cafeteria next March. It is a wonderful community event for a good cause.

Ben Pytleski,
Superintendent, Lena Public Schools

SUCCESSFUL FOOD DRIVE

Laura Schenkoski of N.E.W. Credit Union shows the collection from the Oconto Falls office's first Penny Nicholas Food Drive. The credit union's three other branch offices also collected a significant amount to be distributed among several local food pantries. People who donated food had their names put into a drawing for one of four $50 gift cards. The winners were Marcella Robbins at the Oconto Falls office; April Young, Suring; Mary Rosner, Oconto; and Barbara Anderson, Peshtigo.
