Oconto Falls Area Ambulance proposes major upgrade

Area municipalities would see improved emergency care, higher costs

By WARREN BLUHM

Editor-in-chief

The Oconto Falls Area Ambulance Service is working with local hospitals on an upgrade effort that would make it the first critical-care paramedic service in Oconto County.

The service is owned by the towns of Oconto Falls, Morgan, Stiles and Spruce, the City of Oconto Falls and the Village of Lena. Each municipality has a vote on the board of directors and contributes annual fees to the operation.

Service director Patrick Ahlgrim and his wife, Angie, who are in the last year of their current contract, appeared before the Oconto Falls City Council on April 13 to explain the proposed upgrade.

The service is currently a volunteer advanced emergency medical technician (AEMT) life-support service with 30 self-scheduled members, Angie Ahlgrim explained. This means the first responders and EMTs put themselves on the schedule around their full-time jobs and other activities. About 25% come from outside the service's coverage area, she said.

The aim is to upgrade the service to a critical-care paramedic service in partnership with HSHS St. Clare Memorial Hospital in Oconto Falls and Bellin Health Oconto, two grades above AEMT and on par with County Rescue/Eagle III, Bay Area Ambulance and Shawano Ambulance. They would be the first paramedic ambulance service of any kind in Oconto County.

Calls have been trending upward — a total of 618 calls since the service moved to a new computerized system last July 1 through March 31. Of those, at least 259 (or 41%) were emergency calls and 192 (31%) were interfacility transfers from St. Clare to facilities in Green Bay, Milwaukee and other communities outside the coverage area.

Those transfers can be tricky to schedule, because by law the ambulance service must have a crew on standby for 911 calls at all times. A second crew is needed to make the transfer, and volunteers are not always available, the Ahlgrims said.

Patrick Ahlgrim took over as service director in 2018, and among the first orders of business was making sure a two-person crew was in place when 911 call goes out, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

If a crew is not available, the service is required to contact the emergency dispatch center and say "We don't have anyone for this chunk of time; if anyone calls, please page out Gillett or Oconto," which had not always been happening, Patrick Ahlgrim said.

The couple met with other area ambulance services to see if it was a better idea for one of those services to come in and take over for the good of the community, Angie Ahlgrim told the council.

"After those conversations we decided that neither of us is a quitter, and we wanted to try and push forward with a heavy recruitment campaign," she said. That campaign brought 10 new people to take the class (four passed and became first responders), and it's been a while since the area was left without a local crew on standby.

"We've had some close calls, but we've never actually had to take ourselves out of service since we righted the ship," Patrick Ahlgrim said.

They have been meeting with hospital officials to discuss the idea of an upgrade, which would mean hiring full-time paramedics and seeing a significant increase in operating costs.

"They were very enthusiastic with the conversation, and they're currently helping us look into other grants and rural funding efforts, things of that nature," he said.

Even if grants can be obtained, each municipality would be asked to contribute up to twice the current rate. In the city's case, that means a jump from the current $40,560 annually to an estimated $79,207.83, starting Jan. 1, 2022, Patrick Ahlgrim said.

The increased budget would accommodate three two-person crews, each working two 24-hour shifts a week, for a total of 12 staff members in all.

"We'd still be trying to retain our volunteers the best that we could in hopes that we could have two volunteers on the schedule 24/7 with the full-time crews," Patrick Ahlgrim said.

Council members asked about the Oconto Falls Area service's current financial condition.

"Year to year, we're breaking even. Right now we're bringing in exactly what we're paying our people," Angie Ahlgrim said.

"We're solvent enough that at the end of the year, the last two years, we were able to make significant equipment purchases that otherwise we weren't ready to budget for," Patrick Ahlgrim added.

He said that included two cardiac monitors and an automated CPR device, with all surplus funds invested back into the service.

"We have all of the equipment that we need to make this jump," he said. The additional funding is needed to hire paramedics and get people trained.

The council was cautiously supportive of the proposal and asked for more details.

"Budgets are a little tight, so we gotta figure out where to come up with that (money) if we decide to move forward with this," Alderman Devin Wirtz said. "It would be helpful to have numbers on paper."

The Ahlgrims promised to provide all the information the council needs as soon as possible.

"Our budget process always starts around the end of August, so the earlier we can have something to kind of start looking at, the better," Alderman Mat McDermid said.

The Ahlgrims were planning to make their presentation to the Town of Oconto Falls annual meeting on April 20, and they plan to present to the Morgan Town Board when it meets at 7 p.m. Monday, April 26, at the Town Hall, 3276 County Road C.

Sports complex in hands of Gillett School District

School board agrees to accept donation of Orby Jones Sports Complex from city

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

The Gillett School Board meeting voted unanimously April 15 to approve the donation of the Orby Jones Sports Complex from the city of Gillett.

"This is an incredible opportunity for our district to own this amazing property," said Gillett District Superintendent Todd Hencsik. "In conjunction and collaboration with the city of Gillett, both entities felt that the main user of the Orby Jones Sports Complex is the district and the community youth baseball and softball leagues."

The facility includes three ball diamonds, a park shelter and playground equipment.

Hencsik said with the sports complex, students in the school district will have more access to improved physical activity.

"Our students will have increased access during physical education classes, sports practices and have the opportunities for outdoor educational activities," he said.

According to Hencsik, the school district was paying $3,000 per year to the city to rent the sports complex. When the city raised the rental price to $7,500 for this coming year, Hencsik asked how much would it cost if the school district took it over. The city said zero.

"They will turn around and pay us $5,000 per year for the next three years," Hencsik said.

That $5,000 will go toward the maintenance of the complex.

The acquisition of the sports complex will be cost-neutral to taxpayers.

The sports complex was originally dedicated to the youth of the city of Gillett in 1998 by Orby and Betty Jones.

Hencsik said because the students at the school district were the main users of the sports complex and because the city was going to raise the rental price, the school board felt taking it over was a natural decision.

"We are extremely excited to have the Orby Jones Sports Complex as part of the Gillett School District," said Hencsik.

Hencsik also mentioned that the school district will keep the tradition alive of the youth continuing to use the sports complex.

"This sports complex will be for the youth," said Hencsik. "We want to continue to use it the way that Orby Jones had envisioned it to be used."

Gillett parents ask to end mask mandate

School board reviews mandate, prom plans

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

Twenty parents of children in the Gillett School District asked the school board April 15 to consider repealing the current mandate that students wear masks or face coverings while in school.

"I know that you all are going through a lot of things with all of the COVID-19 restrictions," said Lisa Anderson, mother of two Gillett students. "But, there are a lot of health concerns for healthy people wearing masks."

Anderson expressed her concerns about how children are getting masks.

"Masks are medical equipment," she said. "Only health care professionals are supposed to be giving those out."

Kim Bjelland, also a mother of two Gillett students, said she worries about the length of a school day, wearing masks almost the entire time.

"These kids come in at 8 o'clock every morning; some of them aren't leaving until 6:30 to 7 (p.m.)," Bjelland said. "That's almost 12 hours with a mask on their face."

The Wisconsin Supreme Court recently ruled that Gov. Tony Evers had no right to extend the mask mandate without the state Legislature's approval, and the statewide mandate has been allowed to expire.

"If the state Supreme Court shuts something down, it's for a reason," said parent Kevin Magee, also asserting that masks may not fully protect you from viruses in the air: "If this is truly about safety, everyone in here should be wearing a visor to protect their eyes, because that is a secondary way of getting any viruses."

Superintendent Todd Hencsik said that the local mask mandate has allowed in-person classes to be held while keeping COVID numbers under control.

"We are listening to what our professionals are telling us," Hencsik said.

The school board decided to survey faculty and staff to get feedback about continuing the mask mandate.

On a related matter, school officials told the board that freshmen and sophomores will be allowed to attend prom after all. The original plan was that prom would only be open to students in the 2021 and 2022 graduating classes.

The annual formal dance will still be limited to people from the Gillett School District, though.

"I think that we can safely conduct prom with grades 9-12," Hencsik said.

Secondary Principal Jason Dreier said Gillett is following the example of surrounding school districts.

"For the majority of schools, what they are doing is opening up prom to just their students only, no outside guests," Dreier said.

Oconto Falls City Council extends mask mandate

Aldermen will revisit the requirement in July

By WARREN BLUHM
Editor-in-chief

Oconto Falls Mayor Brad Rice broke a tie April 13 and extended a mask requirement at City Council meetings through July.

The council voted 3-3 on the extension, and Rice exercised his tie-breaking power in favor of wearing masks as a safety precaution during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Aldermen Kevin Rusch, Mat McDermid and Marty Coopman supported the requirement, while Devin Wirtz, Jeff McDonald and Tim Holman were opposed.

"I personally don't have a problem wearing a mask if it puts people at ease," McDermid said, "but obviously I want to revisit it. I don't want this to go on forever. What constitutes when it ends? When everybody's vaccinated? When the numbers fall below a certain point? When will we know again?"

Wirtz said COVID numbers in Texas went down after the mask mandate there was rescinded.

"Missouri never had a mask mandate, and their numbers were lower than everyone else's," he added.

"The masks are not for your own personal consideration; they're for other people to protect," Rice said.

The vote was the last for Rusch, who chose not to run for reelection April 6. Ashley Bahrke, who ran unopposed for the District 2 seat, was due to be sworn into office at the council's reorganizational meeting April 20.

Memorial Field flea market moves forward

Vendors will set up Sundays starting May 16

By WARREN BLUHM
Editor-in-chief

Memorial Field in Oconto Falls will be the site of a Sunday flea market this spring and summer.

Organizer Kevin Sutrick is renting the park for the venture. He told the City Council on April 13 that he has more than 30 vendors lined up for the weekly flea market from May 16 through Sept. 26.

"We got the space. We got the vendors. We have the insurance," Sutrick said. "Everything's going real well. I think everybody's going to be impressed."

The flea market will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. every Sunday except May 30, when the park is being used for the Memorial Day Weekend Celebration.

Alderman Kevin Rusch asked if a memorandum of understanding was in place for agreements as to "who's cleaning up and who's providing what" for the flea market, beyond the standard city rental agreement for one-day use of facilities.

"There's no real substitute for print," Rusch said, making a motion that the city and Sutrick sit down to hammer out such a memo. The council passed the motion unanimously.

Northern towns in county working to join Nicolet tech college district

NWTC programs up north have been eliminated, they say

By NEW MEDIA STAFF

Six towns in northern Oconto County are seeking the county board's help in detaching from the Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (NWTC) School District.

The towns — Breed, Doty, Lakewood, Mountain, Riverview and Townsend — feel a more natural connection to Nicolet Area Technical College, which has an outreach center as close as Carter, just five miles from Townsend.

But the Wisconsin Technical College District Board denied their requests, according to a letter to county officials from Wayne O'Barski, chair of the Northern Oconto County Technical College Committee.

NWTC is based in Green Bay and serves all or part of nine counties, with a Regional Learning Center in Oconto Falls. Rhinelander-based Nicolet College serves Forest, Oneida, Vilas and parts of Langlade, Lincoln and Iron counties.

The Oconto County Board's Finance/Insurance Committee on April 12 recommended that the board support the towns' appeal efforts.

Among other reasons, the towns want to detach from NWTC because of a perceived decrease in community service and outreach programs; an increase in taxpayer cost with specific add-on fees to course costs; elimination of outreach programs, including those for senior citizens; and the drive of 40-plus miles to take required public safety courses that are only offered at the Green Bay campus or Regional Learning Centers.

"Northern Oconto County is in closer proximity in most areas to Nicolet College than to NWTC," O'Barski said in his letter to the county. The six municipalities asked supervisors to petition the state to allow them to join the Nicolet district.

The state board denied the request in part because residents can attend any college they wish without redistricting, and because no one from the public commented when a public hearing was held in Madison, O'Barski said.

The county board was scheduled to consider the resolution supporting the towns' request when it met Thursday morning, April 22.

Kevin L. Christensen

Kevin Lee Christensen, 57, of Seymour, passed away on Monday, April 12, 2021, after a courageous battle with Huntington's disease. Kevin was born Jan. 10, 1964, in Oconto Falls, the son of Delores (Gilbertson) and the late Vernon Christensen. He grew up in Pulcifer and graduated from Gillett High School in 1982 where he was an active wrestler and football player. Kevin was united in marriage to Joyce M. Bohm in 1986. The couple raised three wonderful children — Allison, Abigail and Walker — while living in Seymour. He worked for Carver Boat Corporation for 21 years. Kevin was an active member of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Kevin loved to fish, hunt, four-wheel, motorcycle and camp, but most importantly enjoyed spending time with his family. He also enjoyed football, specifically our ever-favorite Green Bay Packers. Kevin had a special love for NASCAR with Jeff Gordon as his favorite driver. He attended the Michigan, Vegas and Coca-Cola races with his wife. While at these events, the couple had the pleasure of experiencing all the driver shops. He truly loved life and enjoyed the company of many friends.

Kevin is survived by his wife, Joyce Christensen of Bonduel; three children, Allison (Casey) Blohm of Seymour, Abigail (Jordan) Napper of Union Mills, North Carolina, and Walker Christensen of De Pere; his mother, Delores Christensen of Pulaski; and three siblings, Jane (Russell) Herrmann of Ferryville, Todd Christensen of Appleton and Neal (Heidi) Christensen of Pulaski. He is further survived by brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and many terrific friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Vernon Christensen; brothers, Larry and Allan Christensen; sisters, Debbie Zenk and Gail Christensen, and a nephew Cory Christensen.

A memorial service for Kevin was held on Wednesday, April 21, 2021, at 6 p.m. at Swedberg-Wendt Funeral Home in Bonduel. Visitation was Wednesday, April 21, 2021, from 4 p.m. until time of services. Memorials can be directed to Huntington's Disease Society of America.

Kevin's family wishes to express a warm thank you and deep appreciation to the staff at Brewster Village and ThedaCare at Home Hospice for their personal care during Kevin's stay. They also greatly appreciate the help given to Kevin so he could attend each daughter's wedding; this was truly a blessing.

Kayak launches OK'd for Oconto Falls beaches

By WARREN BLUHM
Editor-in-chief

A launching area for kayaks and canoes will be installed this spring at the two beaches in Oconto Falls.

The City Council gave its approval April 13 to installation of the launching docks at East Side Beach and West Side Beach.

Joe Ruiz, a former city police officer who runs a kayak and paddle boat rental business called Off Duty Adventures, asked for permission to install the 14-by-4-foot docks in partnership with the Oconto Falls Area Chamber of Commerce and its president, Gail Yatso.

"We did all the legwork. We got the quotes. We got the money," Ruiz said. "All we need is your OK to go ahead and purchase them and put them up."

The Kaukauna company that sold the docks to Ruiz will send a crew to install them, he said.

"I think it's an excellent idea," said City Administrator Vicki Roberts. "The amount of kayaks and canoes on the river is unbelievable."

Ruiz said from a safety standpoint, it's much easier to climb into a kayak from a dock.

The council voted unanimously to give Ruiz the go-ahead.

KPS uses $15K grant to create educational games

CMN part of team to develop games

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

With assistance from the College of Menominee Nation, students and staff at Keshena Primary School have aided in developing a new way to teach material in the classroom.

The school received a $15,000 grant from CMN to help develop nine games for Breakout EDU.

Breakout EDU is an educational website that provides 700 digital games and 600 games to be played in person with a Breakout EDU kit. The games consist of a scenario, where a group of people are given clues and that group must work together to solve the problem or the puzzle.

Amy Bohr, teacher and building technology coordinator at Keshena Primary, and other teachers have incorporated Breakout EDU into their lesson plans, differing from a traditional classroom setting of lectures.

"The games give the students a chance to learn multiple disciplines and subjects, like social studies, math, science and culture," said Bohr.

For in-person games, teachers are given virtual instructions to set up the puzzle within the classroom. This was made possible at KPS as money from the CMN library grant went into providing teachers with supplies for the games.

According to Laura Robinson, youth services librarian, the grant money was used to cover expenses of the supplies that went into the development of the games.

Amy Bohr was a part of the team that helped to develop nine games for Breakout EDU.

"We were given resources to both create the games and run the games," said Bohr. "Things like kits, posters and clues were given to us."

Students in the STEM program at KPS were also given the opportunity to travel down to Escape Green Bay and learn about the factors that going into creating and running games like those seen on Breakout EDU.

With the nine games that were developed by the students and staff at Keshena Primary School students, from left, Aurora Wilber, Aleaha Wier, Kenny Latender and James Awonohopay showcase some of the clues and items that go into the Breakout EDU games. All four of the children are a part of the STEM program that aided in the development of the games. CONTRIBUTED the school, three of them have been published.

"We incorporated Menominee culture into the games that are published so far," said Bohr.

Due to the fact that Breakout EDU is open to the creation of games from all over the world, this allows students and teachers an opportunity to experience culture and different learning strategies from different parts of the planet.

"We call these games community created, in that different communities all around the world create games with that specific culture in mind," said Robinson.

According to Bohr, the COVID-19 pandemic affected the students' ability to create the games. When school was shut down, members of the staff partook in weekly Zoom meetings and ultimately continued with the creation of the games.

This affected the students and staff ability to work together as Bohr mentioned that the students really enjoyed participating in the creation of the games.

KPS has adopted this style of teaching and learning as these games force students to work together in order to achieve their goal.

"With these games, students are actively learning," said Bohr. "They are collaboratively working together to reach their goal. Sometimes the students won't solve the puzzle, but they will be able to go back and used what they learned to try again."

Robinson said that working closely with the school on this project has opened up a collaboration between the library and the school.

"The College of Menominee Nation are doing activities for Earth Day," said Robinson. "CMN is providing these activities to the Keshena Primary School."

Robinson owes this opportunity to continue to work with the school to the trust that was built with the grant and the collaboration on the Breakout EDU project.

"This was a great opportunity for us to collaborate with the school," said Robinson. "This give us the chance to work closer with the school."

County resolution honors missing, murdered natives

May 5 day of awareness for plight of indigenous women, girls

By LEE PULASKI
City Editor

The Shawano County Board of Supervisors has designated May 5 a day of awareness for missing and murdered indigenous women.

The resolution, which received unanimous approval from the board, noted that a 2016 report from the National Institute of Justice stated that 84% of Native American women have experienced violence in their lifetime, and over half of those were prey to sexual violence. The resolution also noted a 2016 National Crime Information Center report that indicated 6,000 cases of missing and murdered Native women and girls, but the U.S. Department of Justice was only tracking about 100 cases.

The resolution noted the murders of Menominee tribal members Rae Tourtillot in 1986, Ingrid Washniwatok in 1999 and most recently, Katelyn Kelley in 2020, along with Lisa Ninham, who has been missing for 40 years. The resolution also noted murdered Ho-Chunk members Jennifer Wesho in 1989, Jacinda Muir in 2015 and Kozee Decorah in 2020.

The resolution would normally get its blessing from the county's tribal affairs committee, but the request for the observance came too late to make it on the committee's April meeting agenda, so it went through the executive committee instead for a recommendation, according to County Board Chairman Tom Kautza.

"The ladies who were requesting this wanted this done this month because it would never get through the process by the date they have in there to be honored," said Kautza, who noted that he spoke with Supervisor Kathy Luebke, who sits on both committees, and got her OK to have the executive committee sponsor the resolution. "This way, it gets done, and it's a good thing. It's just showing we do support that for them (the tribes)."

Supervisor Joe Miller, who also sits on the Stockbridge-Munsee Tribal Council, applauded the recognition by the county.

Supervisor Arlyn Tober questioned why the board was only recognizing missing and murdered women for one group.

"Why wouldn't it be for all women and girls?" Tober said.

Kautza pointed out that the request came from multiple tribes in the state, not just from the nearby Menominee, Ho-Chunk and Stockbridge-Munsee tribes.

"They just want a show of support and get a little more attention to be brought to this instead of just, when it happens, it goes away into the background," Kautza said.

ThedaCare plans to conduct health and well-being survey

With a mission of improving community health, ThedaCare is dedicated to understanding each person's unique medical background and goals, as well as social factors.

As a commitment to that mission, ThedaCare has launched a survey to understand overall health and well-being, particularly as it relates to the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The survey is open to all community members living or working in Shawano and Menominee counties. The survey can be accessed at thedacaresurvey.com and is open until May 14.

"ThedaCare is committed to empowering our patients and communities with programs and services to improve their health and well-being," said Dr. Mark Cockley, ThedaCare chief clinical officer and president of the clinically integrated network. "To help develop those resources, we want to hear from community members to truly understand the needs in our area, develop solutions and inspire action that leads to better health."

Through the survey, individuals are encouraged to share how they're personally feeling now, and to look ahead to the next five years, related to physical, mental and financial health, as well as social and emotional support and life purpose and fulfillment. Feedback about overall community well-being also will be sought.

The survey takes about five minutes to complete, and individual responses will be kept confidential. Results will be available late this summer.

Mondus plans to sell Anello's Torch Lite

Retiring owner has operated the restaurant since 1981

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

An iconic Shawano restaurant is up for sale.

Rita Mondus, the owner of Anello's Torch Lite, made the decision to sell on the heels of her pending retirement.

"I think it is about time for me to retire," said Mondus.

The eatery at 1276 E. Green Bay St. has been a popular dinner and drinks destination for more than a century. According to the Anello's website, torchliteshawano.com, the building, then known as The Continental, was a popular place in the "Roaring Twenties," often frequented by notorious gangsters, Al Capone and John Dillinger. In the 1920s, the upstairs of the building was known as "a house of ill repute." The restaurant then became known as Club Continental until 1969, when it was changed to the Bavarian Inn.

The name changed one more time to Anello's Torch Lite in 1981, when Mondus took over. She has been working at the restaurant for 44 years.

The restaurant is known for its soups, salads and fresh baked breads, as well as Friday fish fries.

Mondus talked about the great memories that she has shared with the many customers who have come into the restaurant during her career.

"The people in general made it special; I love the people," she said. "It is a great business, it is never dull and always extremely interesting. You never know from minute to minute what is going to happen in this business."

Mondus, who has lived in Shawano her whole life, praised how the community has been in supporting her and the business.

"A lot of people are saying that they do not want it to change," said Mondus. "There has also been positive support with people understanding and congratulating me on retirement."

Rita Mondus described Anello's Torch Lite as an iconic part of Shawano. The restaurant has been in place since 1981, but the property has been around since 1897.

LUKE REIMER | NEW MEDIA

Mondus believes that Anello's Torch Lite plays a big role within the Shawano community.

"If you look at it, it is a very lovely, elite contribution to the community," said Mondus. "It is a nice gathering place. People know the name Torch Lite, with the old building being built in 1897."

Mondus also explained that many people have a personal connection with this building.

"People remember their weddings, their birthdays, their anniversaries and even the baptisms of their babies here," said Mondus. "It has a lot of familiar thought. Even though it is a new building, people still know the area."

While its petting zoo is a special attraction, Mondus credits the success of the business to the good, basic food and a friendly atmosphere.

"People love to gather," said Mondus. "We happen to be a nice central place for people traveling from Wausau and Green Bay. We are also up north from Chicago and Milwaukee, but we are not too far up north."

The area's casinos in the area have been a big contribution to the business as well, she said.

"People always draw up to the casinos and always want a good place to eat," Mondus said. "Hopefully we give them good food and a great atmosphere."

Mondus looked back at her time within the Shawano community and at Anello's Torch Lite in a positive light.

"It is home," said Mondus. "What else can you say, it is home, it warms my heart; these are my people."

The current Anello's Torch Lite building is fairly new because the restaurant burned down on Dec. 30, 2014. The building that stands today was constructed in 2015 and reopened in 2016. After the building was rebuilt, she thought about selling for a while.

"We built it to pretty much think of selling it," Mondus said. "But it just becomes part of you. You think you have got forever until you look in the mirror and say it is time to wake up if you want to do something else."

A couple of people have looked at buying the building, but nothing yet leading to an actual sale, she said.

After she retires, Mondus said she plans to stay in the community and spend more time playing with her animals and meeting up with friends.

"After I retire, I just plan on hanging out in the community and sitting on the other side of the bar," Mondus said.

Bonduel girls team primed for strong season

Boys roster lacking experience

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Bonduel High School track and field team has a number of talented girls on the roster, with the key boys members yet to be established as the spring season starts up.

“With the delay of the spring sports season and the extension into the summer my main concern is how many athletes will be participating this season,” said Bonduel coach James Westrich. “Right now, it looks like we will have a decent number of girls participating, but the boys team is still uncertain. I expect the athletes that do decide to participate in track to work hard and be competitive. It is still unclear if we will have enough strength to compete for conference (Central Wisconsin-Large Division).”

There are several girls back with plenty of varsity experience already on their side.

Seniors Kara Troxel, Breanna Schnell and Madison Kurey are all back after qualifying for sectionals as individuals in 2019.

Troxel made it to sectionals in the 1,600-meter run. She also competed in the long jump and a couple of relays during the season.

Schnell made it to sectionals in the long jump. She is an intermediate-distance runner and will again compete in the long jump this year.

Kurey was a sectional qualifier in the triple jump. She too is an intermediate-distance runner.

Troxel, Schnell and Kurey were also on the sectional-qualifying 4x400 and 4x800 relay teams. Kalleigh Schroeder, now a senior, was the final member of the 4x800 relay, which placed first at the CWC-Large Meet.

Schroeder is yet another intermediate-distance runner for the Bears.

Junior Brenna Hertzfeldt and senior Brooke Kelly will be competitors in discus. Hertzfeldt is also a sprinter.

Junior Jessica Ewing is also back for the girls after placing first at the CWC-Large Division Meet in the high jump as a freshman. She also ran the 800 that season.

Freshman Ashlyn Kurey and sophomores Kendra Troxel and Josie Hoffman will be making their high school debuts this spring. Kurey and Troxel are distance runners. Kurey and Hoffman are expected to compete in the triple jump, while Hoffman and Troxel are long jumpers.

The boys roster in 2019 was full of juniors and seniors, so there isn't many experienced athletes back. That leaves plenty of events open for the taking.

“I believe this year might be a little rough at first,” said Schnell. “Taking the 2020 track season off may have affected many of the athletes. Although, I also believe that it has created a great opportunity to motivate and excite my team. Many of us missed out on a season, which in turn gave us even more motivation to succeed this year.

“I have shared some of my excitement with a handful of teammates as we eagerly wait for our first track meet. I believe this excitement will help keep my team focused and determined this year.”

HIGH SCHOOL SOFTBALL

Marion has high hopes this spring despite young roster

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Marion High School softball team will enter the spring season with a fairly young and inexperienced team, but the team also has reasons for optimism moving forward.

Coach Jenny Korth has one all-conference player back from the 2019 season in junior Ashley Fischer.

“We also finally have depth at the pitching position, which for us has been a struggle the last few years,” said Korth. “As the season progresses, I have high hopes we will continue to improve and be competitive.”

Fischer landed on the Central Wisconsin Conference-North Division second team as a freshman. She will pitch and play first base this spring.

The rest of the lineup will be filled out by athletes with little or no varsity experience.

Senior Celeste Salas and junior

Cheyenne Yonker will help fill out the outfield.

First-time varsity players will include sophomores Nora Wiesman, Karlie Faehling, Dacotah Yonker and Kelsey Zillmer and freshmen Morgan Schwartz and Hailey Krueger.

Schwartz and Wiesman are other options in the circle for Marion; otherwise they will play the infield. Zillmer (first base) and Yonker (catcher, third base) will fill out the infield, while Krueger and Faehling can play all over the field.

“I plan to guide them as they are new on the varsity team,” said Fischer of the underclassmen. “I will also keep a positive mindset while we work to improve our game. I will share my experiences from my first year as I push them to be their best. We are hoping for a great season this year.”

Menominee Indian needing players to step up

Eagles have 1 all-conference player back from 2019

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Menominee Indian High School baseball team has a few experienced players to turn to this spring, but will also need some newcomers to step up in order to be competitive.

"After a long period of no baseball I would hope we can come together as a team and win a few games in the process," said Menominee Indian coach Karl Peters.

Senior Jamison Besaw and juniors Wendell Waukau Jr. and Bryce Dixon are all experienced varsity players Peters can turn to this spring.

All three players can play anywhere on the diamond.

Waukau is the only all-conference Eagle back from 2019. He made the Central Wisconsin Conference-East Division honorable mention team as a freshman.

To fill out the team, Peters is going to need several other players to step up.

Peters hopes junior Robert Zhuckkahosee is one of the players.

"I've talked to a lot of the young varsity players and worked a lot with them," said Waukau. "Most of what we're doing is just getting back into the basics, simple fundamental drills like off the hitting tee.

“Another big aspect is confidence. I told most of the young guys that there will be failure but how you respond and how well you take it in will predict how the next at-bat or the next pitch will go. I do have a lot of confidence in the team that we have this year, and what we can do.”

Gresham/Bowler falls to Gibraltar

By NEW MEDIA STAFF

The Gresham/Bowler boys soccer co-op dropped an alternate fall season match to Gibraltar by a score of 3-1 on April 15 in Gresham.

Gibraltar scored two early goals in the first half before Gresham/Bowler settled in.

The visitors added another goal in the second half off a corner kick to make it 3-0.

Gresham/Bowler continued to battle until the final whistle, taking advantage of a penalty kick in the waning minutes. Adin Brei scored the goal for the co-op.

Goalie James David Jr. made 16 saves in the contest.

Gillett enters season with balanced roster

Accomplished upperclassmen hoping to guide team

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Gillett Secondary School track and field team heads into the season with a mix of talented athletes and new faces on the roster.

“Let’s just say it will be very interesting to see how the season unfolds as it will go well beyond the end of the school year,” said long-time Gillett coach Bill DeJung. “The attitude among most of the kids has been very positive going into the start of practice. We will be quite young and inexperienced in many events.”

The last time the Tigers were in action in 2019, the team had four individuals competing at the state meet. Three of those state qualifiers are back on the roster this spring.

Sylvia Hansen, Aubrey DeBauch and Derek Hanson are the three returning athletes, and all are heading into their senior seasons.

DeBauch will compete in hurdles and jumps for Gillett, while Hansen and Hanson are long-distance runners.

DeBauch qualified for the 300-meter hurdles at the 2019 state meet, placing sixth in Division 3.

Hansen turned in a seventh-place finish in the 1,600 and placed 11th in the 3,200. Hanson took 10th in the 1,600.

Hanson was named the District 2 Runner of the Year by the Wisconsin Coaches Cross-Country Association after this fall season. He made it to state and took fourth as an individual.

FILE | NEW MEDIA

“While the length of the season certainly isn’t an issue, since it’s actually a shorter season, I could see this potentially coming into play,” said Hanson on potentially having to keep teammates motivated this season. “There’s only so much I can do as a leader to help motivate my teammates, as the majority of one’s drive is intrinsic. However, the other team leaders and I like to have check-ins with our teammates to see where everyone is standing both physically and mentally.

“I think continuing to maintain a positive, honest atmosphere with each other and our coach will help us physically by preventing injuries and mentally by avoiding any possible burnout. Thankfully, I’m a part of a wonderful group that has an astounding drive for success, so I don’t think I will really have to harp on us staying motivated throughout the season.”

Seniors Brandon Rodgers and Riley Engebretsen and juniors Connor Hanson, Angela Mosconi and Amber Brehmer are also back with varsity experience for the Tigers.

Engebretsen and Connor Hanson were both on the 2019 sectional-qualifying 4x400 relay. Earlier in that season, that relay won a Marinette & Oconto Conference title.

Mosconi qualified for sectionals in the 800 as an individual, while DeBauch also made it to sectionals in the 100 hurdles and Derek Hanson in the 3,200.

Junior Ryann Wagner will make her debut for the Gillett track team this spring after competing at Suring as a freshman. While at Suring, Wagner was a sectional qualifier in the 1,600, 3,200 and as a member of a 4x800 relay team.

Sophomores Alex and Evan Peterson will also compete in their first track and field season after helping the boys cross-country team to success the past few years.

Along with the boys 4x400 relay finishing first at the 2019 M&O Meet, Hanson also placed first in the 1,600 and 3,200. Hansen was the conference’s top girls runner in the 1,600 and 3,200, while DeBauch was tops in the 300 hurdles.

“Keeping everyone motivated this season to me means that I need to stay concentrated on setting a good positive example for my teammates,” said Hansen. “Also keeping the ‘family feel’ that has always been present on our team will be essential. I really believe that it is a huge component to our success.

“Reminding everyone of our goals frequently will be a key component to keeping everyone focused on the bigger picture. Lastly, bringing a good attitude to each and every meet and practice.”

Nick Anvelink is king in speedway's opener

Christians, Schmidt, Mullen, Wedde also earn feature wins

By DAVE BUSS

Special to NEW Media

After a tumultuous 2020, the thunder returned to the Legendary Half Mile with the Dirt Kings traveling series joining the Late Model field April 17. Another welcomed sight was a nearly packed grandstand as fans were eager to return to some normalcy. With 111 cars checking in, the night was sure to be action packed at Shawano Speedway.

Eric "Chummy" Arneson returned to racing action at the speedway in the IMCA Stock Car division and battled through caution-filled opening laps to take the lead on lap four, powering past the Chucky Forstner machine and bringing Jeremy Christians along with him. Arneson and Christians were joined by Kevin Hebbe in the top three.

Numerous cautions continued to plague the feature event, setting up a final lap shootout that found Christians jumping past Arneson to pick up another feature win in the IMCA Stock Car division.

Not to be outdone, the IMCA Sport Mod division's feature event also included numerous caution flags. The constant throughout the event was last year's track champion Jayden Schmidt leading the pack. Schmidt gained the top spot from Jason Jach on lap two and survived multiple restarts to pick up the feature win.

Jeff Schmuhl powered through the field from his ninth-place starting spot to grab second while Jeffrey Teske took third. Jach hung on to finish fourth.

The Dirt Kings rolled trackside for their first event of the year, with Justin Ritchie and Nick Anvelink on the front row. The field took the green flag after an emotional tribute to longtime late model driver and sponsor "Diamond" Jim Letizia, who passed away last week.

From the drop of the green, Anvelink found familiar ground as he took the top spot. Ritchie and Troy Springborn, the 2020 track champion, gave chase.

Like so many times before, only a couple of cautions would slow Anvelink as he powered to his 15th win in the Dirt Kings series. Ritchie held the second spot ahead of Springborn and Ron Berna, who started eighth in the event.

The IMCA Modifieds rolled on the track, with Mike Mullen to the outside of Nick Holtger on the front row. Mullen would not let the great starting spot go to waste as he jumped to the lead on lap one.

Marcus Yarie followed Mullen, with Lucas Lamberies taking the third spot.

Mullen dominated the event to pick up the win, with Yarie and Lamberies left to entertain the crowd. Lamberies and Yarie would not disappoint, as they put on an exciting two-car battle for second. When the dust settled, it was Yarie in the runner-up spot with Lamberies in third. Wyatt Block made a strong run forward to grab fourth.

The Mighty 4's finished the night with Tanner Westphal leading the pack. Westphal maintained the top spot until Brad Wedde made his move, grabbing the top spot on lap four.

Wedde powered away for the win with William Hoefs getting past Westphal for second. Jody Cornelius grabbed third with Westphal in fourth.

IMPORTANT UTILITY DUE DATES ARE CHANGING

Beginning in June 2021, Oconto Falls Municipal Utilities will be changing billing periods and due dates for most of our customers. The intent of these changes is to align our purchase of wholesale energy with the retail sales that we charge you, our customer, and minimize the fluctuations in the Power Cost Adjustment Clause (PCAC) that appear on your monthly bill.

The Power Cost Adjustment Clause (PCAC) allows electric utilities to make monthly adjustments to customer bills when costs for providing power are above or below the average cost authorized by the Public Service Commission (PSC). When power costs fluctuate, the PCAC allows bills to be adjusted accordingly.

NEW BILLING PROCEDURE

Beginning in June, due dates will become uniform for all customers, around the 28th of every month. Over the course of the next few months, you may experience longer periods of service reflected on your monthly bills, but by no more than five additional days per month.

BUDGET/AUTO PAY CUSTOMERS

The planned shift will change the date of your automatic payment. Auto payments will be withdrawn around the 28th of each month, beginning in June 2021. Please review your payment due date!

TRANSITION SCHEDULE
