Leopolis Triathlon a fun time for all

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Leopolis Triathlon brought out droves of competitors and fans as it always does and plenty of fun was had along the way on July 4.

Competitors in the kids, beer belly and jock division started the triathlon by swimming approximately 50 yards across the Leopolis Pond.

Athletes then hopped on their bikes. The kids and beer belly divisions each biked five miles, while the jock division biked 12 miles.

Competitors ended the triathlon by running. The kids and beer belly divisions ran two miles each, while the jock division ran five miles before reaching the finish line.

At the end of the triathlon, Mike Heidke (jock), Joe Guenther (beer belly) and Bryson Nelson (kids) crossed the finish line first in their respective divisions.

Will Chelberg, Claire Guenther, John Schneider and Amy Wiskow rounded out the top five in the jock division. Levi Schick, Tony Witt, Jacob Burr and Nina Nelsestren filled out the top five spots in the beer belly class. Lily Guenther, Josef Pludeman, Jill Guenther and Lovell McGregor capped the top five in the kids division.

Full results from the triathlon can be found at www.onyourmarkstiming.com.

Waupaca edged Bonduel in a battle of the Dairyland League's top two teams on July 1 in Bonduel.

Bonduel grabbed the lead with a pair of runs in the bottom of the third inning after a Waupaca error. The Lakemen got the runs right back in the top of the fourth on a two-run homer from Brenden Canterbury. Waupaca took a brief lead with a run in the top of the fifth. This time, Bonduel had an answer, with J.C. Reinke driving in Chase Reinke in the fifth to tie it.

Tyler Dayton drew a bases-loaded walk in the seventh to plate Luke Behm for the game-winning run. Jack Eagan earned the win for the Lakemen, striking out 18 batters and throwing 160 pitches in a complete game effort.

Bonduel starter Chase Reinke struck out nine batters in five innings. Jack Reinke pitched the final four frames and took the loss.

Cecil 5

Hofa Park 3

Cecil toppled Hofa Park in a July 2 matchup in Hofa Park.

Connor Peetz gave Cecil the lead with a RBI single in the sixth. Peetz and Braden Vandermoss tallied two hits each for the Mudhens.

Isaac Boldt led Cecil with three hits and also earned the win on the mound after pitching eight innings and striking out eight. Noah Beilfuss pitched the last inning.

Hunter Buschke suffered the loss for Hofa Park. Gavin Rusch led the team with two hits.

ing a July 1 clash in Navarino.

Hunter Larson drove in three runs on a double in the ninth inning to give Pulaski an 8-6 advantage. Larson, Jack Maastricht, Jason Infusino, Ethan Bemowski and Mac Cisar all had multiple hits for the Reds, with Maas-tricht also homering.

Cody Pangrazzi earned the win in relief of Joel Vandehei for Pulaski.

Kyle Finger posted three hits for Navarino, while Ryan Boettcher had two hits and Mason Dingeldein drove in two runs. Boettcher pitched all nine innings, striking out five along the way.

Shawano's Henning tabbed Bay's top player

4 other Hawks
also recognized

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

Five Shawano Community High School baseball players were named to Bay Conference teams this spring, with junior Ashton Henning being tabbed the Player of the Year.

Henning and senior Zac Jurmu were unanimous picks to the first team as an infielder and outfielder, respectively. Senior Carson Popp made the first team as an at-large pick. Senior pitcher Jacob Polzin made the all-conference second team, while junior infielder Jacob Landon made the honorable mention list.

Henning finished Bay Conference play with a .419 batting average. He doubled seven times, tripled three times and clubbed two homers. Henning drove in 25 runs and scored 19 times.

Henning pitched 34 innings for the Hawks, picking up five wins and one save. He struck out 48 batters and had a strong 2.60 earned run average.

"It's a really great honor, and it's a goal of mine I have had in the back of my head for awhile now," Henning said. "To actually achieve that goal is amazing."

"This motivates me to work even harder this offseason to see what I can do next year," he continued. "Right now the sky is the limit, and I'm really looking forward to what next year brings."

Jurmu was an on-base machine at the top of Shawano's lineup. He posted a .421 average and was on base at a .528 clip.

The senior outfielder doubled six times and tripled once. Jurmu scored 18 runs and drove in 10 other runs.

"Receiving unanimous first team all-conference as a senior is extra special to me because it is the exact goal that I set for myself following the end of my junior season, when I received second team all-conference," said Jurmu. "I went to a few hitting clinics and camps over the offseason and really just learned how to trust in my ability to play baseball well."

"It's pretty obvious that the majority of the Shawano varsity team had that same mentality, because there are numerous other players other than myself that received an all-conference spot this year. It just feels like a picture perfect way to end off my high school baseball career. I would not have wanted it any other way."

Popp was the team's primary catcher this spring. He helped guide pitchers through games, but he was also a big threat at the plate.

Popp recorded a .377 average in Bay action. He drove in 13 runs and scored 14 times.

"It was really awesome to be recognized as a first-teamer, especially in our conference where there are a lot of really great players," said Popp.

Polzin covered 29 innings on the mound to earn his honor. He picked up a pair of wins and a save while striking out 26 batters and sporting a 1.90 earned run average.

Landon capped his junior season with a .348 average. He doubled seven times and drove in 10 runs. Landon also scored 14 runs for the Hawks.

Shawano tied for the Bay title with Menasha with 12-6 conference records. The Hawks went on to win a regional title before coming up just short of a sectional semifinal win.

Gillett/Suring pair, STAA/Lena player make M&O 1st team

Teams have total of 5 all-conference players

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Gillett/Suring and St. Thomas Aquinas Academy/Lena softball co-ops each had players named to the Marinette & Oconto Conference first team after strong spring seasons.

Gillett/Suring senior Madison Vandeveld and freshman Emma Kristof and STAA/Lena junior Chaela Rabas all made the first team.

Gillett/Suring sophomore Autumn Dryja and STAA/Lena freshman Peyton Dorow both were honorable mentions.

Vandeveld earned her first-team honor as an outfielder. In her senior season, she turned in a .310 batting average and .444 on-base percentage in conference play.

The outfielder doubled twice and tripled once among her nine total hits. Vandeveld drove in 10 runs and scored four times.

"I think it is really important to me," said Vandeveld of the honor. "It's something I never expected. Not only my team but the conference made me grow as a person, student and athlete. It is such an honor to be recognized by all of the M&O coaches for all of the hard work I put in to get to this point."

Kristof quickly made a name for herself in her freshman season, batting .559 in conference play to go along with a .595 on-base percentage.

Kristof doubled eight times and tripled twice among her 19 total hits. She drove in 14 runs and scored 10 runs.

She also spent 12 1/3 innings in the circle in conference play. She struck out 10 batters.

"To me, making first team makes me feel like everything I worked for all season has paid off," said Kristof. "It also makes me feel like people are now seeing what I can do on the field.

"Now that I got first team this year, I feel like I have to work harder to get it the next year. It will also motivate me to work hard on the field to get better each day."

Rabas made the M&O's list as the top catcher. The junior batted near the top of the team's lineup and was solid defensively behind the plate.

"Making first team is a huge accomplishment for me," said Rabas. "It shows that all my hard work in the offseason is paying off.

"This will motivate me for next season as I strive to be on first team again and finish my high school career on a high note."

Dorow dealt with an injury this season, but she was able to show enough in her time on the field to earn an honorable mention nod as a freshman.

"Making the honorable mention team was really special to me, especially since I only got about half of a season with my injury. It was amazing to receive an award like this," said Dorow.

"This award and that honor will motivate me to not only make myself better for the upcoming years, but make me aware I'm fully capable of anything — even coming back from an eight-month injury strong enough to receive an award."

Dryja had a strong season at the plate and also did some pitching for the Gillett/Suring co-op.

She finished with a .385 batting average and an outstanding .590 on-base percentage after walking 10 times. Dryja doubled twice among her 10 total hits. She also scored seven runs and drove in three during M&O play.

Dryja pitched 45 1/3 innings in conference play, striking out 23 batters along the way. She earned the team's only conference win.

STAA/Lena also had one conference win.

4 Pulaski players honored for FRCC play

Klingeisen makes 1st team as senior

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Pulaski High School baseball team had four players land on a Fox River Classic Conference team this spring.

Senior Jonah Klingeisen was a unanimous first-team selection. Sophomore Kyle Olson made the second team, while senior Logan Hochevar and junior Lincoln Simons were both honorable mentions.

Klingeisen finished the spring season with a impressive batting average of .449 to go along with a .481 on-base percentage. He had 12 extra-base hits among his 31 total hits, drove in 22 runs and scored 12 times.

The senior also covered 17 innings across 10 games pitched. He struck out 14 batters and earned a pair of wins.

"It is a super special accomplishment as all my years of hard work have come together to shape me into the player I am today," said Klingeisen. "I couldn't have done it without all the support I received from my parents, coaches and teammates over all the years. I couldn't have asked for a better way to wrap up my senior season."

Olson was Pulaski's most-used pitcher, covering 48 innings across nine games and eight starts. The sophomore earned four wins, struck out 45 batters and had a strong 2.77 earned run average.

At the plate, Olson drove in eight runs on 12 hits and also scored 10 times.

"It means a lot to me for getting second team — shows a lot of who you are and the hard work that you have done," said Olson. "I'm not satisfied with second team though, and I'm gonna keep pushing myself to get first team and hopefully even Player of the Year.

"I will be motivated for the next two years to keep improving not only on myself but as a team and pushing each other to do great things. Pulaski will be better and stronger next year and looking for a state run."

Hochevar capped his senior year with a .344 average and .446 on-base percentage. He drove in 16 runs and had nine extra-base hits among his 21 total hits.

Simons tallied a .278 average and .435 on-base percentage for the Red Raiders this spring. He posted 15 hits and 11 RBIs while scoring 15 runs.

The junior covered 15 innings on the mound, striking out 11 batters along the way.

"To make the honorable mention team for baseball feels like a huge honor to me, especially considering how hockey is my main sport," Simons said. "To achieve all-conference awards in two sports is super cool to me."

"This honor will motivate me for next year because I know we lose some really good hitters," he continued. "So I will have to do even better than I did this year in order for our team to have the success we are hopeful for."

Bucks' Beauchamp overcomes adversity to reach NBA

By RICH ROVITO
The Associated Press

There was a stretch of homelessness while growing up. A constant shifting from one high school to another. The cancellation of an NBA draft training program due to the pandemic. A year proving himself with a G League developmental team.

MarJon Beauchamp's journey to the NBA has been fraught with so much adversity, he questioned whether he'd even have the opportunity to get here. At one point, after missing out on the training program, Beauchamp dealt with depression and felt his chances had run out.

"There was a point that I didn't really believe in myself," Beauchamp told the media June 28. "I didn't have (any) opportunities, and I wanted to be in the league so bad."

He cried on draft night when the Milwaukee Bucks took him with the 24th overall pick and received welcoming text messages from Bucks stars Giannis Antetokounmpo and Khris Middleton. But it wasn't until he arrived in Milwaukee this week, saw his image on a billboard and met with coaches and team personnel that he finally knew "it's getting real."

"I think all the adversity prepared me for this moment," Beauchamp said. "The obstacles I had to go through to get here was a little different from everyone. Getting through the adversity made me who I am today and made me more thankful of my opportunities. I don't want to lose this opportunity."

General manager Jon Horst said he was thrilled that Beauchamp remained on the board when the Bucks' pick came up.

"This is an incredible opportunity for us when you look at the player and the person ... and the things he's overcome in his life to get to where he's at," Horst said. "We believe this will be someone who will be a great fit for us both for basketball and from a personality and character standpoint."

Beauchamp's humility has impressed Mike Budenholzer, but the Bucks coach stressed that Beauchamp will have to win a spot on the roster and playing time with a team that won the NBA title in 2021.

The chance to play with a championship-caliber team has Beauchamp excited about landing in Milwaukee.

"It's a blessing to be in a winning situation and with a winning team because I feel like I'm a winner," he said. "I feel like I can flourish with this team."

Beauchamp sees himself fitting in first and foremost as someone with "young energy" who can contribute immediately on defense while providing outside shooting on the offensive end, a sore spot for the Bucks in last season's playoffs.

"I know there's a lot of attention on Giannis, and I feel like I can knock down that 3-ball in the corner," he said.

Beauchamp, who credited his grandmother for keeping him focused throughout the challenging periods, said he continues to be motivated by a goal he set some time ago, one that reflects the hurdles he's faced.

"My goal is to get my mom a house one day," Beauchamp said.

4 area players take part in WBCA All-Star Games

Every player scored in their games

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

Gresham's Hannah Cerveney and Valarie Cerveney, Bonduel's Allaina Robaidek and Lena's Max Beyer all played in 45th annual Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Associated All-Star Games on June 29 and 30. All games were played at JustAgame Fieldhouse in Wisconsin Dells.

The Cerveney girls played on the Division 5 girls game on the North team. The team was defeated 68-51.

Valarie Cerveney made a pair of free throws in the first quarter, while Hannah Cerveney made two free throws in the third quarter.

"I was so thankful that I was chosen to play on the WBCA All-Star D5 North team," said Hannah Cerveney. "It was such an amazing experience, and I had a blast.

I made new friends, and it was so special that I got to experience it all with my cousin Valarie. It was definitely very special for me to be able to play in that game for my last high school game."

"Was really cool to kind of have like a second last high school game, it was a bittersweet moment," said Valarie Cerveney. "After seeing one of my brothers and one of my sisters play in the games as well, one of my goals for the season was to make the all-star team."

The teams spent time on the practice court in the couple days leading up to the game, but also had plenty to do when not playing.

The teams stayed at the Great Wolf Lodge and got to swim at a waterpark before eating at Buffalo Phil's. After dinner, teams continued to bond.

The all-stars got to enjoy jet boat rides the following day, along with a tour on the river and more swimming at a waterpark. The night before the games, there was a banquet to recognize the all-stars and the money that was raised for the MACC (Midwest Athletes against Childhood Cancer) Fund.

"Our team was so close, we got along so well," said Valarie Cerveney. "From day one it was like we knew each other forever, it was so fun."

"The actual game was super fun and I had a great time," said Hannah Cerveney. "It was a really awesome experience to play against some of the best players in the state."

Robaidek played in the Division 4 game on the North team.

Robaidek's team lost 63-54, but the Bonduel grad scored nine points. She knocked down a pair of 3-pointers in the first quarter and then converted an and-one in the third quarter.

"Being surrounded by amazing girls really put a highlight on my career," said Robaidek. "The amazing friends I made just topped the experience and made it a memory I will truly cherish forever.

"Playing with/against girls with such amazing talent really opened my eyes to the world of Wisconsin basketball. It's honestly one of the greatest and most hard-working groups of women out there. It was an honor to be included in such an amazing group of girls."

Beyer was on the Division 5 boys red team that earned a 99-88 win on June 30.

"It was a huge honor to play with all of the guys and get to go out one last time," said Beyer.

Beyer scored eight points in the contest to help his team to victory.

"It was awesome playing with and against everyone — such great talent and it was definitely a memory I'll never forget," said Beyer.
