Bonduel claims Wildcat Tournament

Gresham takes 2nd, Bowler 3rd

The Bonduel High School volleyball team continued its strong start to the season by posting a 3-0 record to win the 26th annual Wildcat Kickoff Tournament on Aug. 27 in Gresham.

Bonduel opened its day with a win over Elcho before toppling Bowler and Gresham.

Gresham finished 2-1, with wins over Bowler and Elcho. Bowler ended up 1-2 after a tight win over Elcho, which went 0-3.

Bonduel

Bonduel cruised to a 25-11, 25-12 win over Elcho to start off its day of play. The Bears topped Bowler 25-9, 25-10 before a 25-8, 25-22 victory over Gresham.

"I think that we did a great job communicating and working together as a team," said Bonduel's Abby Stoltenow. "We also did a great job of being aggressive and taking control of the games."

"Today's 3-0 finish was definitely earned by hard work and determination," said Bonduel's Hailee Thompson. "The team worked so well together and we are all starting to communicate effectively on the court. All of our hitters have stepped up tremendously over this past week."

Thompson stuffed the stat sheet against Elcho with 13 assists, five digs and two aces to lead the Bears. Tatum Sporisky and Josie Anvelink each contributed six kills.

Against Bowler, Audrey Weier recorded seven digs and five kills. Anvelink had six more kills, while Thompson posted 11 assists.

In its sweep of Gresham, Thompson tallied 16 assists. Stoltenow and Anvelink contributed six and four kills, respectively, while Weier had seven digs and four kills.

Bonduel capped the week with a 9-1 record, with another first-place finish at a home invite on Aug. 25.

"I think that the great start to this season has really brought our confidence up and it is helping prepare us for the rest of the season," said Stoltenow.

"Our confidence has definitely been boosted. So many players who may not have had the most confidence finally believe in themselves," said Thompson, noting the team was missing senior libero Macy Niles.

Gresham

Gresham knocked off Bowler 25-11, 25-15 to open up the tournament. Chloe Bohl led the Wildcats in the win with nine kills.

Lexi Baddmoccasin-Barnes totaled 11 assists and eight service points for the hosts. Maddie Haffner was serving when Gresham scored 17 of its points, and she also served 10 aces.

Gresham took on Elcho next, winning comfortably by scores of 25-7, 25-6.

Bohl again led the team with seven kills, while also tallying seven service points. Baddmoccasin-Barnes tallied 11 assists and 11 service points, while Janay Pecore-Kirkland had 15 service points.

"Me and my team learned that we need to be more consistent with our plays and learn how to trust each other more," said Bohl of the day overall.

In the team's 25-8, 25-22 setback to Bonduel, Bohl finished with five kills.

Baddmoccasin-Barnes assisted on nine points and Rylie Kakwitch recorded eight digs for the Wildcats.

"Our team wants to improve on being more consistent and also making sure that we hit the ball more and not just give it over to the other team easily," said Bohl. "I am very proud of everyone, they have improved a lot already and I can't wait to see where this brings us in the future."

Bowler

In its 25-11, 25-15 setback to Gresham to start the day, Bowler had just eight attack kills in the match. Bertina Dodge, Ava Paiser and Natalie Rickert each tallied two attack kills.

Rickert and Paiser each had three assists for the Panthers, while Dodge led the team with six digs. Isabella Stevens contributed five digs. Dodge also was the team's best server in the match, making eight total serves.

In the 25-9, 25-10 loss to Bonduel in its second match, Bowler had just three attack kills, with Rickert having two of them.

Rickert also had three of the team's five assists. Paige Treptow recorded a team-leading three digs, with the team having 12 total.

"We learned we have to communicate more as a team," said Paiser on what the team learned across its three matches. "Also not to let the other teams get in our heads."

Bowler was able to end the day on a positive note after a 25-23, 25-23 victory over Elcho.

Stevens finished the match with nine combined kills and six digs to lead the Panthers. Paiser recorded four attack kills, nine assists and six digs.

Rickert also had four attack kills, while adding eight assists. Dodge contributed three attack kills and five digs.

"We definitely needed that win to give us hope on the rest of the season," said Paiser, who added the team just needs to keep its spirits up moving forward.

ATHLETE PROFILE: DAVID GAUDERMAN

Witt-Birn senior off to strong start this fall

The Wittenberg-Birnamwood High School football team is coming off a great season, but also needed to replace several impact seniors from that team. David Gauderman, now a senior, has helped shoulder the load in the early going and has helped the team to a 2-0 start.

In a 49-14 win over Antigo in week one, Gauderman rushed for 139 yards and two touchdowns on just 10 carries. He also caught a pass.

On defense, Gauderman finished with a team-leading nine total tackles. He also was credited with a sack.

Gauderman was even more unstoppable in a 53-7 win over Iola-Scandinavia in week two. He rushed for 176 yards and four touchdowns on nine carries. Two of the four touchdowns were 65-plus yard runs to give the team an early two-score lead.

Gauderman also led the defense in total tackles for a second straight week with 10.

The Witt-Birn athlete also stars for the wrestling team. A year ago, Gauderman placed third in the Division 3 220-pound weight class and finished the winter season with a 47-4 record.

Q: When did your interest in football begin?

A: Watching the high school games when I was in grade school and watching my older cousin (Nick Nueske) play.

Q: What is your favorite part about the football season?

A: The atmosphere, everyone comes together to support the team.

Q: You also wrestle for the Chargers. How does wrestling help you out on the football field?

A: It helps with mental tough-the football season?

A: Training hard and getting everyone on the team working.

Q: After a big season last fall, what needs to happen this season to enjoy more success?

A: We need to keep working hard every day at practice.

Q: What was your favorite part about your team's deep postseason run last year?

A: The energy it brought to town. I have never seen so many people from Wittenberg at games as I saw looking in the stands playing Aquinas last year.

Q: Before a game starts, do you or the team have any routines or rituals you go through?

A: We go out to eat and we get the speaker blasting.

Q: What's your favorite memory of competing on the Wittenberg-Birnamwood football team?

A: Competing in the sectional final game after Wittenberg hasn't been in that position in about 16 years.

Q: Favorite movie, TV show and musical artist?

A: Movie — "Fast and Furious." TV show — "Avatar: the Last Airbender." Music artist — "Lil Baby."

ATHLETE PROFILE: TEGHAN KRISTOF

Senior hoping to help Hawks to big goals

The Shawano Community High School girls golf team has high expectations for its fall season, and senior Teghan Kristof hopes to help the team accomplish some of its goals.

The senior placed second on the Hawks at the first two Bay Conference meets of the season. She carded a nine-hole round of 45 to place fourth overall at the first meet and posted a 47 to claim fifth overall at the second meet.

Kristof again placed second for Shawano during the Thunder Invite on Aug. 17, carding an 18-hole round of 96.

The senior was third on the team at the third conference meet with a round of 45. Kristof was back up to second on the team at the fourth Bay meet with a round of 49.

She is coming off a junior season in which she made the all-conference first team.

Q: When did your interest in golf begin?

A: My interest in golf began when I was a freshman. I had no interest in it beforehand and I did not know anything about it.

Q: What is your favorite part about the golf season?

A: My favorite part about the season is just getting to spend almost every day with my teammates.

Q: What has golf taught you over the years?

A: Golf has taught me to be a very patient person and that you can always improve.

Q: What is your favorite course to play at, and why?

A: My favorite course to play at is Shawano Lake because I have the most experience there and it is where I tend to shoot my lowest scores.

Q: As a senior, how do you help lead the rest of the team?

A: As a senior and being the oldest on the team I must help lead them to do the right things and be a strong role model for them.

Q: Before a meet starts, do you or the team have any routines or rituals you go through?

A: We talk each other up in the morning, so we are all in the best mood and confident for the meet. Also, on the way to meets we listen to music to hype us up.

Q: What's your favorite memory of competing on the Shawano girls golf team?

A: There are a lot of great memories with the girls I have played with over the years, but the best memory was when coach thought the battery was dead in the van to go home but he was just using the wrong key.

Q: Favorite movie, TV show and musical artist?

Q: Name one thing about yourself that not many people know.

A: I am suffering from a new found health issue.

Q: What are some things you hope to accomplish after graduating high school?

Chargers earn another lopsided win

Witt-Birn routs Iola-Scandinavia, moves to 2-0

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Wittenberg-Birnamwood High School football team rolled to 53-7 nonconference victory over Iola-Scandinavia on Aug. 26 in Wittenberg to move to 2-0 on the young season.

Senior David Gauderman rushed for four touchdowns to power the Chargers. Junior quarterback Nathan Waupekenay ran for a score and also tossed a touchdown pass to junior Casey Kielman. Sophomore Jett Rogowski and freshman Bryson Schmid also rushed for a touchdown each.

It wasn't just an offensive explosion for the Chargers though, as their defense was stout outside of one drive. Witt-Birn only allowed Iola-Scandinavia past midfield on three occasions.

Witt-Birn's special teams unit also played well, blocking three punts on the night to set up a couple short drives for its offense.

Witt-Birn quarterback Nathan Waupekenay runs with the ball during a nonconference win over Iola-Scandinavia on Aug. 26 in Wittenberg.

MORGAN RODE | NEW MEDIA

The start to the contest went about as well as it could have for Witt-Birn.

After receiving the opening kickoff, Gauderman broke a couple of tackles before rumbling 67 yards for a touchdown on the first offensive play.

Witt-Birn's defense then forced a three-and-out before getting right back to work on offense. Facing a third-and-five, Gauderman again broke free for a touchdown, this time going 66 yards.

Gauderman and Waupekenay both credited the Chargers' offensive line for the big night the rushing attack had.

"It's always fun to get an early touchdown, an early lead and we just kept putting it down their throat the whole game," said Gauderman.

After forcing another punt, Witt-Birn's offense was moving the ball down the field again before Gauderman had the ball stripped away. The Chargers' defense got the ball right back, as a bad snap led to a fumble that senior Max Fraaza fell on.

A penalty on first down looked like it might hurt the Chargers, but Waupekenay connected with junior Marshall Fraaza for a big gain and first down before Gauderman plowed into the end zone for a third time.

Iola-Scandinavia's next drive ended in another punt, and this time, Witt-Birn blocked it to set up the offense at the Thunderbirds' 18-yard line. The next play is when Waupekenay and Kielman connected to make it 28-0 after a quarter.

Iola-Scandinavia looked to find a little rhythm on the next drive with its passing game, eventually scoring a touchdown, but Witt-Birn's defense settled in after that.

Senior linebacker Chris Crews said the team's strong defensive showing was due to the week of practice leading up to the game.

"We were really focusing on our responsibilities," said Crews. "We knew what we had to do, especially when they came out in these special looks that they had when they were trying to run these counters and whatnot."

Witt-Birn answered the Iola-Scan-dinavia scoring drive with one of its own. A balanced rushing attack moved the ball near midfield before Waupekenay found junior Keegan Benbo for a long passing play.

A couple plays later, Waupekenay scampered 19 yards into the end zone for the team's fifth touchdown of the half.

Fraaza blocked a Thunderbirds' punt on the ensuing drive, helping create another short field for the Chargers' offense.

Rogowski got the ball on the first two plays of the drive, and he scored on the second play from 11 yards out.

Junior Braeden Groshek blocked another punt in the third quarter, helping set up a 6-yard Gauderman touchdown run to start the running clock. That's when the Chargers pulled most of their starters and coasted to victory.

Schmid, the backup quarterback, capped the lopsided win off with a 9-yard touchdown run in the final quarter.

Through two games, Witt-Birn has outscored its opponents 102-21. The Chargers are pleased with their results so far but know things will get tougher, especially in conference play.

"It's amazing because everybody has been doubting our team because of the roster and seniors we lost from last year," said Waupekenay, of picking up where the team left off last season. "It feels nice to be doing the same things they did last year."

Lena/STAA takes down Suring in nonconference matchup

Marquardt led way for Titans, accounting for 3 touchdowns

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

The Lena/St. Thomas Aquinas Academy Titans traveled to Suring on Aug. 25 and beat the Eagles 35-0 in a nonconference matchup.

Scoring started fast for the Titans, as senior quarterback and kick returner Sam Marquardt returned the opening kickoff for a 76-yard touchdown.

“Our guy covering the kicker made an awesome block and I was able to punch it in for the touchdown,” said Marquardt. “It was awesome.”

Outside of returning a kickoff for a touchdown, running was the name of the game for the Titans, as they totaled 278 yards rushing, between seven players. Marquardt led the way for the Titans, recording 83 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries. Freshman running back Max Peterson added 74 yards and touchdown, while junior running back Calvin Peters added another 47 yards.

“Our gameplan was just to run the ball every play — we have a big set of linemen, so it worked out nice,” said Marquardt. “We are definitely a team who puts their head down and runs the ball.”

Suring showed a sign of life on its second drive, marching down the field on the back of junior running backs Trent Thomson and Seth Scrivens. The pair totaled 18 combined yards on the drive. Though the run game was starting to click, a fumbled snap caused the drive to stop in Lena/STAA territory.

After picking up a first down on a fourth-and-1, Lena/STAA sustained a drive that lasted the rest of the first quarter. When play resumed in the second quarter, the Titans were faced with a third-and-4. Like Suring, Lena/STAA aborted the snap and it was recovered by Suring on its 18-yard line.

The Titans once again held Suring to a three-and-out, but on the punt, the snap was short and bounced on the ground. The Suring punter then picked up the ball, got the punt away and was immediately hit by a rusher. A 15-yard roughing the punter penalty was thrown and Suring took back over with a new set of downs.

Lena/STAA once again held Suring, this time it were able to turn the Eagles over, as Suring senior running back Keegan Rattin was tackled for a loss of two, resulting in the Titans taking over on Suring's 40-yard line.

From there, Marquardt took over, converting rushes of six, seven, 12 and 11 yards, the last being the second touchdown scored of the game, with 1:44 left in the second quarter. Freshman Colt Miller completed the two-point attempt on a pass from Marquardt.

In the middle of the third quarter, a short punt from Suring gave Lena/STAA great field position, as it took over on Suring's 43 yard-line. Marquardt started the drive with a nine-yard rush and had 15 yards added on after a horse collar tackle was called. On the very next play, Marquardt connected with senior wide receiver Sidney Sylvester for a 32-yard receiving touchdown with 3:15 remaining in the third quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, Suring could not properly field the kick and Lena/STAA jumped on the loose ball, trotting its offense back out onto the field. After methodically working down the field, the drive ended with a 13-yard touchdown run from senior running back Josh Kristof with one second remaining in the third quarter.

Another three-and-out forced Suring to punt, which resulted in another long drive ending with a touchdown from Peterson with 8:05 left in the game.

“On offense, we started off kind of slow,” said Marquardt. “Our offensive line stayed fresh as they weren’t playing defense, so we were able to pick up our running attack closer to the second half. We ran the ball pretty good today.”

Moving forward, Marquardt said the Titans need to put in good weeks of practice in order to keep getting better. Teams on the horizon for Lena/STAA include another matchup with Suring. Marquardt said that he is circling that game on the calendar.

“We are looking forward to it — it is their homecoming, so we will have a different gameplan and hopefully put a win on the board,” said Marquardt.

Even after going without getting in the end zone, Suring head coach Mitch Taylor said that there a lot of positive takeaways from this game.

“It is a whole new team this year,” said Taylor. “Last year we had some leadership issues. I did not see that tonight. We had a lot of resolve. It was back and forth during that first half, they really had to earn that touchdown in the second quarter.”

Taylor said that he was most happy about his team not quitting when the game got tough.

“They could have folded,” said Taylor. “Lena/STAA is a great team and our guys did not quit.”

Avoid ash trees when placing deer stands

The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources cautions hunters to avoid placing deer stands in or near ash trees this deer season as they start scouting properties.

Most ash trees in the southern half of Wisconsin, Door County and the Mississippi River counties are dead or dying from emerald ash borer infestation. Although emerald ash borer is not as widespread in other parts of the state, the invasive insect continues to be found at additional locations throughout the state and unreported infestations are also likely present.

Tree stand accidents are the leading cause of serious injury to deer hunters. Research shows one in four bowhunters have experienced a fall or near-fall from an elevated stand.

It is important to place and maintain tree stands carefully, as trees infested with emerald ash borer may unexpectedly snap or drop large branches. Hunters should also be cautious around ash trees when on the ground, especially in windy conditions, as infested trees are susceptible to branch and stem breakage.

"Dead and dying ash trees are structurally weaker than healthy trees, so they are not safe places to put deer stands," said Bill McNee, DNR forest health specialist. "In many cases, it can be hard to tell if a tree has been infested by emerald ash borer, so hunters should place deer stands in other types of trees instead."

Basic rules of treestand safety

No matter the type of treestand, follow these basic safety rules:

- Always wear a full-body harness, also known as a fall-arrest system. Connect to your tether line and keep your tether line short. The tether is designed to keep you in the seat, not to catch you after you fall.
- Always have three points of contact while climbing into and out of the treestand, including two hands and one foot or two feet and one hand at all times.
- Always use a haul line to raise and lower your unloaded firearm or bow into and out of the stand. You can also use the haul for other things like a heavy backpack.
- Use a lifeline when climbing up and down, this keeps you connected from the time you leave the ground to the time you get back down.

It is important to place and maintain tree stands carefully as hunters prepare for this upcoming seasons. WISCONSIN DNR

Additional treestand safety information is available at dnr.wisconsin.gov/education/OutdoorSkills/TreestandSafety.

How to identify ash trees

Ash trees can be identified through two key features: opposite branching patterns, where two branches come off the main stem directly across from each other, and compound leaves with 5-11 leaflets.

More information on ash trees and how to identify them is available on the UW-Madison's Department of Entomology Emerald Ash Borer in Wisconsin webpage (cab.russell.wisc.edu/what-is-an-ash-tree/).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Pride of Hawaii: Herbig ready to lead Wisconsin's defense

By STEVE MEGARGE
The Associated Press

Wisconsin outside linebacker Nick Herbig's teammates noticed something different about him as soon as he arrived on campus two years ago.

The audacity that enabled him to pick a school over 4,000 miles away from his Hawaii home helped make Herbig an immediate weapon for a defense that annually ranks among the nation's best. As the Badgers replace eight of their top 10 tacklers from last season, they'll have to count on Herbig for leadership.

According to his teammates, he's been providing that all along.

"He came out here doing stuff we haven't seen in a freshman," defensive tackle Keanu Benton said. "Even verbally, freshmen usually don't come in speaking up and stuff like that. He came in, knew what he was doing, and once he figured his stuff out, he was helping his teammates."

Herbig had 14½ tackles for loss and a team-high nine sacks last season for a Wisconsin defense that allowed the fewest yards per game and yards per play of any Bowl Subdivision team. He's an Associated Press All-America second-team preseason selection heading into the 18th-ranked Badgers' Sept. 3 opener with Illinois State.

He says the fire he brings to the field comes from spending his childhood with two older brothers in Kauai, Hawaii.

One of his brothers, Nate Herbig, is a New York Jets guard who spent three seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. Herbig says their father fostered a competitive household that "made us hate losing more than we love winning."

"Anything in the world, you name it — cards, who could drink their water faster at dinner, who could eat their food faster, who could wash their clothes and fold it the fastest, just random stuff," Herbig said.

"Everything was who could do it the best. At the time, I wasn't a big fan of it, but I know that it paid off."

Herbig didn't anticipate bringing that competitive spirit to Wisconsin.

"Honestly, at first, I was like, 'There's no way,'" Herbig said. "I didn't even know where Wisconsin was."

He had a change of heart after researching Wisconsin's program and discovering the Badgers had a knack for shutting down Big Ten offenses each year.

"They always had good linebackers; they always had a great defense and a great culture," Herbig said.

Herbig even helped recruit good friend Kamo'i Latu to Wisconsin when the former Utah safety entered the transfer portal this year. Latu and Herbig were teammates at Saint Louis School in Honolulu, the same high school that produced NFL quarterbacks Marcus Mariota and Tua Tagovailoa.

"Me and Nick, as kids, we looked up to Marcus Mariota, Tua, a bunch of other kids that came out of our high school," Latu said. "We felt we needed to set a standard for our class, the class of 2020."

Herbig also is setting a standard for Wisconsin's defense.

He understands his responsibilities as the defense's top returning playmaker. He remembers watching so many seniors from last year's defense walk off the field disappointed after a loss at Minnesota that cost the Badgers a Big Ten Championship game appearance.

"I kind of promised myself I'm never going to let something like that happen again," Herbig said.

Herbig spent the offseason working on his leadership skills, realizing different players respond to different types of encouragement.

"The more vocal he gets the better, because he puts it all out there every day," defensive coordinator Jim Leonhard said. "He cares. He shows that. He wears his heart on his sleeve."

Menominee Indian adjusting fall schedule

Eagles to play 5 junior varsity games, 2 varsity games the rest of the season

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Menominee Indian High School football team will play a mixture of junior varsity and varsity games the rest of the fall season.

The Eagles' next five regular season games will be JV contests, before playing two varsity games to end the season. Menominee Indian will travel to Tomahawk on Oct. 7 for a varsity game before a varsity homecoming game against Northland Pines on Oct. 14.

Menominee Indian made the decision to adjust its fall schedule after losing 76-0 to Auburndale on Aug. 19. The Eagles were defeated 54-0 by Waupun on Aug. 25 in Keshena in its week two varsity matchup.

"We're trying to make sure that our football program is still functioning and still gonna be sustained," said new Menominee Indian athletic director James Oshkeshequoam. "Our current situation now is we have a lot of young kids, a lot of freshmen and sophomores, so for us to switch down to a JV schedule for a majority of the year makes the most sense for our kids for them to get the most out of this season."

"We're just trying to make the most of the situation that we have," he added. "I'm sure if other schools in the state were in a situation like ours, they would want to make sure that the schedule they put forth for their kids is going to put them up for success in the future. I believe with us making some adjustments here and there in the schedule that this does that."

Oshkeshequoam said that first-year football coach Nick Heimermann has been "flexible in this process" and has been "understanding of the situation."

For its home game against Waupun, Menominee Indian had 25 players listed on the roster, with not all of those guys suited up. Only two players on the roster were seniors, while five were juniors.

"I know we got a young team, but a lot of these guys never even played freshmen or JV," said Heimmermann. "Some of these guys, the last time they played competitive football in a game, was eighth grade. And that makes a huge difference playing against these guys (varsity teams)."

The new coach added that there's guys on the team that have never played before and it's been evident through the first two games of the year.

There'd be times coaches would go over a lineup before sending the offense, defense or special teams out on the field, and there would be a couple guys missing. The team also had to burn its timeouts early in the first half against Waupun to get the right personnel on the field.

The coach was disappointed to have to transition to the JV schedule, but thinks it's important to have his guys playing against guys with similar high school football experience. He added there's plenty of talent on the roster, and that with experience, the group could be successful in the future.
