WELCOME

Welcome to SunDrop Dayz! This family friendly event is free and has something for people of all ages to enjoy! Leadership Shawano County Class 16 (a Shawano Country Chamber of Commerce program) created Sundrop Dayz in 2016, with the help of Leadership Shawano County Classes 2017 and 2018, along with Twigs Beverage, the City of Shawano, Shawano Police Department, Shawano Municipal Utilities, Screamin' Head Buzz, our generous corporate sponsors listed in this program, NEW Media, Results Broadcasting, area restaurants, musicians, crafters, entertainers, artists, nonprofit organizations and volunteers galore, present SunDrop Dayz!

We greatly appreciate the Shawano community for helping us make this event so successful. It is heartwarming to see the local nonprofits, local businesses, and the Sundrop Dayz Board volunteer countless hours of their time to help plan and run this event. This event wouldn't be what it is today without all of them.

When we created SunDrop Dayz six years ago, we never dreamed of it being as large and successful. This event was created to give back to local nonprofit organizations. This year's SunDrop Dayz will support:

Menominee Indian Tribe Traditional Singing & Dancing

The song and dance of the Great Lakes tribes has been a traditional aspect of the Native people of this area for generations. The woodland style of dance was popularized in the 1950s through increased tourism and economic impact. Today we see many styles of dance and accompanying songs. The different styles include: traditional, jingle dress, fancy, grass, and chicken dance style. Each of these dances has a specific set of dance moves and regalia which is personalized to each individual dancer. These dance outfits often require many months to complete and will feature handmade beadwork, brightly colored designs, feathers, and animal skins, depending on the complexity of the dancer style.

Mastering a dance style takes many years of dedication and hard work. Powwow dancers will often travel thousands of miles each year to compete and exhibition at powwows all over the country. The COVID-19 pandemic has limited large gatherings, but we are all looking forward to when we can once again get back on the powwow trail.

The drum is the heartbeat of the people. The singers who sit around the drum sing songs for the dancers and make the music which is instantly recognizable at any powwow. Mastering the art of singing and drumming also requires many years of experience. Singers must be able to sing appropriate and specific songs for each dance category on demand. There are songs for each dance style, sometimes slower paced as well as fast as possible depending on the dance. There is such a wide variety of songs and song types, being a singer is a highly respectable and important part of the powwow.

We are pleased to perform and share a little of the traditional culture with our friends at the annual Shawano SunDrop Dayz.

THE BANDZ

Spark Spark BANG

4:30-6:30 p.m. Friday

Spark Spark BANG is ready to bring you an experience! As performers, they merge the intensity of a wild punk act with the refinement of seasoned pop professionals. Covering various genres their goal isn't to fit a typical mold but to keep the crowd singing and having fun all night.

The Cheap Shots

4:30-6:30 p.m. Friday

An award-winning festival-sized cover band playing everything from Rush to Usher, The Cheap Shots has headlined major festival stages, rocked Summerfest, performed at the Wisconsin State Fair, and played at public and private venues across the state.

Chad Przybylski & His Polka Rhythms

11 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday

Chad Przybylski, born in Pulaski in 1967, and his high-energy polka band were do their part to nurture the Wisconsin polka tradition. Przybylski and his band began performing polka music in his hometown of Pulaski around 1980. When Przybylski reformed the Polka Rhythms in 1987, the band took on six members, adding brass to his original sound. The band lasted in this incarnation until 1994 when Przybylski again changed his sound, and now had four members. Since then, he has recorded 10 albums and has played hundreds of events across the Midwest and the United States including several "Polka Cruises," a TV show in Branson, Missouri, for RFDTV.

Jason McNabb & The Reign

3-6 p.m. Saturday

From picking on the front porch and jamming with the family band to performing in front of thousands on a festival stage, opening for some of the biggest names in country music. Jason McNabb is a walking, talking version of the phrase "been there, done that." Growing up in Manitoba, Canada - what he would call the "Paris" of the prairies - Jason naturally gravitated toward hard work and country music. The two wouldn't take long to go hand in hand either.

The Glam Band

6:45-10 p.m. Saturday

A few friends sitting at a bar talking about how cool 80's rock was led to an inaugural show on a Tuesday night at Riders Saloon in Kimberly back in 2007. The crowd reaction at that first event was unbelievably positive, and The Glam Band was born. The band started out as a five-piece ensemble, and later added a keyboardist in 2013. This six-piece band is now in their 15th year of bringing a killer decadent 80s rock show to venues across the region, including SunDrop Dayz 2022!
