Leasing county squad vehicles pondered

Sheriff's department expects to save $1 million over 10 years, rotate vehicles more frequently

By LEE PULASKI

City Editor

The Shawano County Sheriff's Department is looking at the possibility of leasing its squad vehicles as opposed to outright purchasing them.

Currently, the county has 43 vehicles operated by sheriff's county officials — including deputies, detectives, jail employees and higher-ranking officials. Under the proposal, the county would go from purchasing the vehicles on a six-year rotating basis to leasing them from Enterprise Car Sales, which would allow the vehicles to be rotated every four years and could save the county some money.

The idea came up two years ago at the suggestion of then-administrative coordinator Brent Miller, according to Chief Deputy George Lenzner. At that time, the leasing program was just getting started with no indication of whether it would save costs. A check with the counties that currently adopt the same program Shawano County is considering indicates it might save the sheriff's department $1 million over a 10-year period, Lenzner said.

Langlade County is part of the rental program, he noted, and that county and others "have been very satisfied with it."

"We basically looked at our budgeting down the road, and to keep up our fleet, it's going to be near impossible (with the purchasing practice)," Lenzner said to the county's public safety committee July 7. "That's why we wanted to look at this. This was one way we could actually keep up the fleet and keep the costs down."

Lenzner said the sheriff's department isn't quite ready to switch over to the practice. He said the department was waiting on a report that would show how much in interest the county would pay by leasing the vehicles, although leasing is expected to cut down on the maintenance and fueling costs because the vehicles will be more energy-efficient. According to information provided to the committee, the county is paying more than $66,000 annually in maintenance costs just for the sheriff's department vehicles.

Lenzner noted the county would still do maintenance on the leased vehicles, as the cost would be less than it would if the sheriff's department went through Enterprise.

There's also a buyout option so that, if the county is dissatisfied with the performance of a particular vehicle during the terms of the lease, would allow Enterprise to sell off the vehicle and partially reimburse the sheriff's department for any equity put into the vehicle to that point.

Lenzner said the county would also have options at the end of the lease as to how the vehicles could be sold in the private sector.

"We can either have (Enterprise) sell them, or we can sell them ourselves at our auction," Lenzner said. "We're thinking it's better for them to sell them and get more money for us."

Lenzner said the sheriff's department would operate whichever method the county deems fit, but he doesn't see the cost of purchasing new or used squad vehicles going down in the future, only up.

"Personally, we don't care which way we do it," Lenzner said. "What matters is that we get enough money coming in to purchase the squads, and that has been a severe issue for the last two or three years. Every year, we're cutting squads. We're driving them until they reach 200,000 miles and getting dangerous. Our maintenance costs are going through the roof for these older squads."

He added that Menominee County is getting into the program for its sheriff's department.

Administrative Coordinator James Davel recommended the sheriff's department get a contract that would allow the county's corporation counsel to look everything over and ensure all the details are worked out.

"This would be a huge shift,"

Davel said. "This would be a major shift as we go down."

The switch in policy would require a resolution to be approved by the county board. The existing policy and vehicle replacement fund was put into place in 2011.

Sheriff Adam Bieber said the cost savings was only one factor in considering the switch. Deputy safety was also paramount, and he noted that the current policy of letting the vehicles reach higher mileage can put them in jeopardy of breakdowns and other issues when they're on the road.

"We had a K-9 car do a U-turn on the highway, and the wheel came off. That's how old his squad car is," Bieber said. "We just want to make sure we're taking care of our deputies. They're the first responders, especially out west, where there's no EMS or first responders."

Lenzner noted the Chevy Malibu that he currently drives will not go over 60 miles per hour, something that was a factor when he had to drive to the scene of a deputy-involved shooting in the Town of Red Springs a week earlier.

Corporation Counsel Larenda Maulson urged the department to look at all options, even beyond the two being pondered (leasing vs. purchasing) to make sure the county realizes full savings.

"Is there something that would be a little less cumbersome or full of assumptions?" Maulson said. "I'm just curious if there's a better way to turn over the vehicles the way that we need to for safety. What other solutions could we come up with?"

Wittenberg considers raising sewer rates

Rates have not increased for 16 years

By LUKE REIMER
Reporter

The Wittenberg Village Board got an update on the sewer rates in the village by fellow board member Barb Buchholz during its biweekly board meeting July 6.

"We need to increase our sewer rates," Buchholz said. "Our sewer rates have not increased in 16 years."

She said work that needs to be done on sewers has been put off due to the expense of the maintenance.

"It just gets worse and worse and worse," she said. "Everyone around us — meaning Bowler, Birnamwood, Tigerton and Clintonville — have sewer rates that are a lot more than ours."

Buchholz attributed the difference in sewer rates to the village having a lower population and being a small community.

"You have to divide the rates among that few of people," she said. "It is not like we are a big city. It is not like we have 10,000 people living here. The problem is, is that the expense of running the sewer system is divided only among those people."

Buchholz suggested that the board discuss and deliberate about an increase.

"We really have to think about increasing the rates, and we really need to think about doing it on a regular basis," said Buchholz.

The current sewer rate in Wittenberg is $6 per every 1,000 gallons.

Trustee David Timm asked if businesses and residential rates were the same.

"Everyone pays the same rate," said Village Clerk Traci Matsche.

Timm added that with regard to water, there is a discount based on the size of the water main that is being used.

"If a heavy-duty business or industry was using more water, they would get a discount," said Wittenberg Sewer and Water Superintendent Joel Yaeger. "We only have one industry in this village, and they pay industrial rates."

Timm said he noticed that Yaeger and other village employees have had their hands full with work on the lift stations around the village.

"We have eight lift stations," Yaeger said. "The thing is, like Barb was explaining, is that things are just wearing out. We design a plan for 20 years, and we are at 16 right now."

Matsche added that Yaeger had told her that this year alone, the village has spent over $23,000 to keep up with maintenance.

Yaeger gave an example on the maintenance of a lift station that needs to be done.

"This month, two blowers went out," Yaeger said. "Those are the heartbeat of the plant. Brand new, those are 12 grand apiece. So one we are getting new, and one we are getting rebuilt. The generator also went down, and that is about a $10,000 bill."

Board President Bill Switalla said the village holds a separate account to use for wear and tear on lift stations and other sewer and water mechanics.

"We never used to touch that until like seven or eight years ago," said Yaeger. "That is what is helping us out right now."

Timm asked for Yaeger's recommendation on a timeline of replacing lift stations.

"That one was just kind of a fluky situation," said Yaeger. "It was the oldest in town. We have one more that I want to get rebuilt. All of the other ones are pretty new."

Buchholz finished the conversation by saying that other bills go up, and with the sewer rate not going up it is a strain on the system.

"It is just a matter of time before the DNR tells us to do it," said Yaeger.

"Right. So do we wait until that point when the DNR tells us?" asked Buchholz.

Discussions on sewer rates will be ongoing in the future.

County looks at hiking bailiff pay by 25%

Proposal plans on eliminating meals and mileage reimbursement

By LEE PULASKI
City Editor

Shawano County Clerk of Courts Ethan Schmidt is looking at increasing the hourly pay for bailiffs who work in courtrooms during jury trials, which are starting to take place again.

Schmidt told the county's public safety committee on July 7 that he's seeking to up the current pay of $10 per hour to $12.50 per hour. However, the courts also plan to eliminate paying mileage and for meals for those bailiffs.

Schmidt said the county is looking at not providing jurors a meal as a cost-cutting measure, so it made sense to do so for the bailiffs, as well. Jurors are paid $25 for a full day of jury duty and $13 for a half day.

"With the mileage, it's a hassle for (the) finance (department) to get the mileage tracked and get that to be paid out," Schmidt said.

He noted that Forest County is currently the only other county paying mileage to jurors, and Forest and Langlade counties are the only ones providing meals to jurors.

"Looking at other counties, I thought $12.50 (for bailiffs) was a good ballpark figure to put us at compared to the other counties," Schmidt said.

He said that the most mileage the county is having to pay for a bailiff is 20 miles round-trip, as most of the bailiffs live in close proximity to the courthouse. The county started paying bailiffs mileage in 1991, according to Schmidt, but state law only requires the courthouse to pay mileage for jurors, not for bailiffs.

The committee was hesitant to approve the changes because Schmidt did not have a cost analysis on how the pay increase, combined with not providing meals and mileage reimbursement, would impact the county's budget. It opted to wait until August for approval, once the costs are more hammered out.

Schmidt said currently $6,000 is budgeted for bailiffs, which hasn't been tapped into much for 2021 as jury trials were on hold until June due to the coronavirus pandemic's impact on personal distancing. He said that budget could go up.

"It's going to depend on how many jury trials we have this year," Schmidt said. "We have two (bailiffs) per jury trial. Right now, we've had three days of jury trials started, but all of them were settled so we didn't need a jury trial."

Supervisor Theresa Serrano said she was in favor of increasing the pay to $12.50 per hour, but she feels the bailiffs should receive mileage and meals, as well.

Supervisor Tom Kautza said he would prefer to see how much the county is dishing out for mileage to see if the pay raise would make a difference. Schmidt said the mileage is low for bailiffs now, but if someone wanting to be a bailiff comes from the western part of the county, that could be a factor.

Schmidt has had two people recently reach out with an interest in being a bailiff, including a retired sheriff's deputy. He said he currently has a rotation of 15 bailiffs that he utilizes whenever jury trials take place.

"Some only do it during the summer months when they're here," Schmidt said.

Marathon County hires new corporation counsel

Peurner has been a deputy in the office for five years

Marathon County Administrator Lance Leonhard has announced the appointment of Michael Puerner as the county's next corporation counsel. Puerner will succeed Scott Corbett, who was recently elected as Circuit Court judge, and will assume responsibilities Aug. 1.

Puerner has served as the deputy corporation counsel for Marathon County since August 2016. Prior to his role in the Office of Corporation Counsel, he worked as an assistant district attorney for the county for three years.

"The position of corporation counsel is critically important to our organizational and community success," Leonhard said. "Mike's depth of experience, knowledge and commitment make him an excellent addition to our leadership team, and I'm excited to have him take on this new role."

As deputy corporation counsel, Puerner has prosecuted actions relating to child protection, mental commitment and child support enforcement, and he has provided legal guidance to county department heads, staff and elected officials. Additionally, Puerner has successfully argued cases on Marathon County's behalf before the Wisconsin Supreme Court and Wisconsin Court of Appeals.

"I am both excited and honored to serve Marathon County as its Corporation Counsel," Puerner said. "I look forward to building on the strong partnerships I have developed with Marathon County departments, elected officials, staff and citizens while growing into this new position."

Puerner completed his undergraduate studies in 2008 at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he majored in political science and history. He went on to graduate with honors from Marquette University Law School in 2011.

Donald Lee Price died unexpectedly on July 2, 2021, at his home in Cedarburg at the age of 71.

He is survived by his wife, LaVon; children, Dawn (Chris), David (DeAnne) and Carrie (Dave); siblings, Peggy (Jim) and Ronald; grandchildren, Nathan, Elizabeth, Luke, Krista, Tanner, Collin, Alex, Katy, Kylee, Myranda, James, Mollie, Evie and Eleanor; and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Jim and Al; and his parents, Mabel and LaVerne.

Don was born on Dec. 24, 1949, in Shawano to Mabel and LaVerne Price. Don graduated from Gresham High School in 1968. Shortly after graduation, he was drafted into the Army in April 1970. Upon a short leave from the Army in August of that year, he married LaVon, whom he had met in Shawano. The couple later moved to Cedarburg, where Don worked successfully as a superintendent at Mared Mechanical Contractors, Winding Roofing, and Stippich. The couple welcomed their first child (Dawn) in 1972.

They later welcomed their other two children (David and Carrie) in 1974 and 1976.

Don was a very caring, supportive, athletic, and hard working father, who taught his children and grandchildren the value of these skills. He also passed along his passion for fishing, hunting, gardening, carpentry, mechanics, sports, and his overall love for the outdoors, where he spent a lot of time up north in Shawano with his friends and family. Don also loved to ride his motorcycle, work on his truck, and spent countless hours in his yard maintaining an immaculate lawn and landscape. Don was a great husband, father, and grandfather to his many grandchildren, whom they affectionately called "Bapa."

Funeral Services were held on Friday, July 9, 2021, at Trinity Lutheran Church and School at 10729 W. Freistadt Road, Mequon.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to Trinity Lutheran Church and School (address listed above). For online condolences please visit www.muellerfuneralhome.com.

Mueller Funeral Home and Crematory in Cedarburg is honored to assist Don's family. 262-377-0380.

Baldwin wants to bridge 'digital divide'

Senator asks northeast Wisconsin leaders for input on broadband access for all

By LEE PULASKI
City Editor

U.S. Sen. Tammy Baldwin met with a number of officials from northeast Wisconsin, including Shawano County, for a roundtable discussion July 8 on broadband internet access — or a lack of it.

Baldwin touted the recent distribution of a $500,000 grant to study the discrepancy in broadband access to New North, made possible through the federal CARES Act, in 18 counties, including Shawano, Oconto and Menominee. She said at a media briefing at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College's Green Bay campus that the "digital divide" of quality internet access between rural and urban communities is one that has been known for a while, but the coronavirus pandemic magnified the issue.

"If you think about infrastructure, you think about the things we need to keep our economy going," Baldwin said. "We need roads and bridges to get products to market, to get inputs into factories so they can produce whatever it is they produce, and for farmers to get feed onto the farm for their products to go to market. We need broadband for the very same reasons."

Broadband is needed for businesses and farms to find outside markets willing to purchase what they produce, Baldwin said, noting that not having it limits the success of small entities in rural areas. The pandemic showed broadband was also essential to other necessities like health care and education when those buildings were closed to in-person access.

"During the pandemic, we learned that it was absolutely essential to our learning and our health," Baldwin said. "Because of precautions and all the necessities of social distancing, people needed to start using the internet for all of the essentials of life."

The New North grant is expected to be used to discover where all of the gaps are when it comes to internet access, according to Baldwin. White House statistics show almost 14% of Wisconsin residents live in U.S. Sen. Tammy Baldwin takes notes July 8 as she listens to area leaders talk about the problems their communities have had because broadband internet access is not widely available during a roundtable discussion at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College. Baldwin said she is seeking input on where there are gaps and needs so she can better inform others in Congress about the need for universal broadband.

areas where there is no broadband infrastructure, and 69% live in areas where there's only one broadband provider.

"Certainly, the local leaders and champions of economic development we had gathered today are aware of the gaps, but not necessarily with the sort of visibility and details they need in order to make the right policy decisions," Baldwin said. "It was great to be briefed on how they're going to use the funding in order to get a clear picture."

A bipartisan agreement in Congress is expected to invest $65 billion for Wisconsin to allow affordable, reliable, high-speed internet access for every family regardless of where they live. Baldwin and her colleagues in the Senate will take up the issue the week of July 12.

"We are expecting, if we're successful in passing these bills, additional funds to really build up broadband, especially in rural areas that don't have access at all," Baldwin said. "We need accurate data to do that, and we need good policies to do that."

Baldwin noted that legislation passed earlier this year is requiring better coordination between the National Telecommunications and Information Administration, the Federal Communications Commission, and federal agencies like the U.S. Department of Agriculture as they determine how to reach far-flung areas of Wisconsin with broadband infrastructure.

"I don't want them to be working at odds or in duplicative ways," Baldwin said. "I want them to work together to fill the gaps between their programs."

Peter Thillman, chief economic development officer with Shawano County Economic Progress Inc., noted that the state's Public Service Commission maps show that Shawano County has 100% broadband access. That is not the case by a long shot, he said.

"Shawano County had a unique challenge," Thillman said, pointing out that the schools "all have iPads, but some of them don't work because you can't get a strong cellular signal. We know that we have some local providers that are very good at this, but we know that with the towers, we have a lot of woods, so if you don't have a line of sight, you don't have internet access even though on the (PSC) map, it says you have 100 megs."

Baldwin agreed that the state and federal broadband maps were "a disaster."

Thillman noted that smaller telecoms like Bertram Wireless and Wittenberg Telephone Company have been very responsive in trying to fill in some of the rural gaps, and the

LEE PULASKI | NEW MEDIA

U.S. Sen. Tammy Baldwin, left, asks some questions about broadband internet access July 8 as Barb LaMue, chief executive officer for New North, listens during a roundtable discussion at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College.

Menominee and Stockbridge-Munsee tribes are working on plans to provide broadband access on reservation lands.

"We had telecoms providing free internet before the ARPA (American Recovery Plan Act) dollars came in so their communities could learn, which was really phenomenal," Thillman said. "I can say our two sovereign nations, both the Menominee and Stockbridge-Munsee, had both started projects putting fiber in the ground. That will make a big difference in that area."

Still, the western and southeast portions of Shawano County are lacking, he said.

"We have people that could work remotely if they had internet access, but they can't," Thillman said. "You have people who are sick and need to access telehealth, but they can't."

Broadband access was an issue when it came to the schools, he added, and he thinks the future entrepreneurs and leaders of the world will be at a disadvantage because remote access to learning was not available in every corner of the county.

"I feel for this next generation of students," Thillman said. "We've lost 15-20% of them just because they lost a whole year of learning. How do you make that up?"

Barb LaMue, chief executive officer for New North, said the federal grant that Baldwin sponsored will help the nonprofit agency to develop an implementation plan for each county so that, when federal funding is passed to build the broadband infrastructure, northeast Wisconsin will be ahead of the game.

"As additional dollars are added for broadband, we clearly want our region to be better prepared to be really strong applicants for getting that last mile of fiber in the ground or putting three more towers in," LaMue said.

Broadband is no longer something for the privileged few, LaMue noted. It is something needed as much as electricity and phone access.

"Broadband is not a luxury," LaMue said. "We liken it to a highway. We liken it to electrification. It's not a benefit. You need it."

OBITUARIES

William R. Schwarzbauer

William Roger Schwarzbauer "Bill," 56, died Wednesday July 7, 2021, at his residence. He was born Aug. 19, 1964, in Neenah, son of the late John and Dolores (Ginke) Schwarzbauer.

Bill became the owner and operator of "The Higher Wire" bar in Shawano, a couple years ago, which was a dream that he pursued, and was really proud to have accomplished. Bill was an avid Harley Davidson motorcycle enthusiast. He enjoyed motorcross racing and ice racing on Lake Winnebago. Bill was a terrific handyman who could fix everything; he especially enjoyed working on anything with a motor. Bill also enjoyed golfing, and fishing. Anyone who ever met Bill, instantly became his friend. Bills greatest enjoyment came from his time spent with his many friends, family, and especially his grandchildren.

Bill is survived by his two daughters: Heather Schwarzbauer, and her children: Kylie, Braxton, and Alexis; and Alexis Polar, and her children: Ariel, and Jack; his special friend, Vikki Weaver; three sisters: Cathy Fieck, Vicky (Wayne) Genske, and Lucy (Joe) Czarnik; and three brothers: Charles, John, and Jim; He is further survived by 15 nieces and nephews; and many close friends, especially David "Davey," Todd "Roadster," and Craig.

A celebration of life for Bill will be held this Friday, July 16, 2021, beginning at 2 p.m., At Lucky Dog's, 157 S. Green Bay Road, Neenah.

Witt-Birn's Rekow, Worzalla make CWC-East 1st team

3 Chargers land on 2nd team

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

Five Wittenberg-Birnamwood High School baseball players were honored by the Central Wisconsin Conference-East Division following the spring season.

Seniors Austin Worzalla and Austin Rekow each earned spots on the first team. Senior Bryce Zoromski made the second team along with sophomore Chase Krull and freshman Ian Salvesen.

Worzalla and Rekow starred on both the mound and at the plate for the Chargers.

Worzalla posted a .456 batting average for the entire season, driving in 21 runs on 26 hits. He also was hit by six pitches and drew six walks to help lead to an on-base percentage of .535. He scored 22 runs.

On the hill, the senior logged 38 innings across eight games and seven starts. He picked up three wins and had an earned run average of 2.57. Worzalla struck out 26 batters while walking just six.

"Making first team as a senior means to me that all the work and hours that I put in the years before paid off my senior year to help and try to make my team win," said Worzalla.

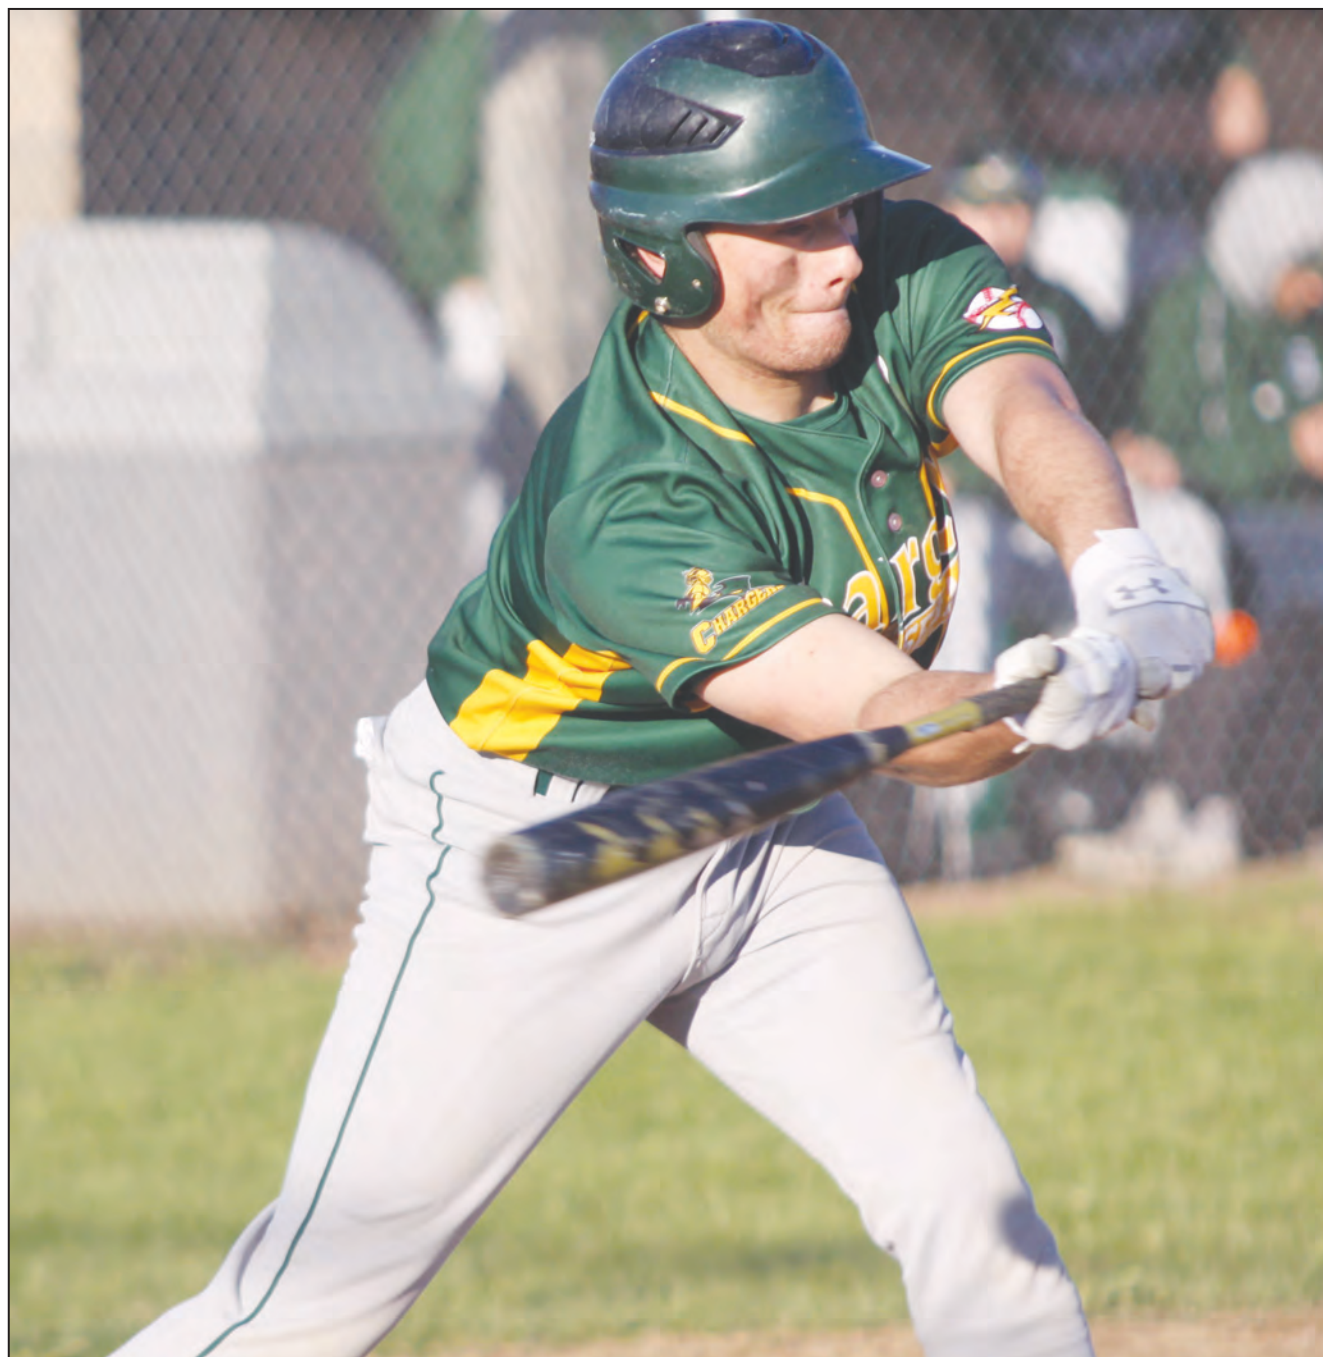

Rekow pitched 33 1/3 innings for Witt-Birn across eight games and seven starts. He earned half of the team's 10 wins on the season and posted a 2.10 ERA while striking out 35 batters.

At the plate, Rekow put together a .421 batting average and .500 on-base percentage. He drove in a team-leading 23 runs on 24 hits and also scored 11 times.

"It means a lot," said Rekow of the honor. "I've played high school ball for four years and to me it's a huge accomplishment. It was something I was striving for and I finally got it."

Zoromski led the Chargers with 30 runs scored. He had a .356 batting average and got on base at a .480 clip.

The senior had 21 hits and 11 walks while driving in four runs.

"To me, making the second team feels like a great accomplishment," said Zoromski. "From not being able to play baseball my junior year and only having one year of experience on varsity prior to this year, this really is an accomplishment I won't forget. This was definitely one of my goals as a senior to make one of the all-conference teams."

Krull earned his second team spot primarily for his work at the plate. He had a .339 batting average and .400 on-base percentage to go along with 19 RBIs and 15 runs scored. He led the team with 10 extra base hits, including all three of the team's home runs.

Krull also pitched 4 2/3 innings between three games.

Salvesen was Witt-Birn's top hitter with a .492 batting average and .565 on-base percentage. All 29 of his hits were singles.

The freshman drove in 17 runs and scored 22 times.

"Having all-conference honors this year helps me a lot with my confidence heading into upcoming seasons," said Salvesen.

Witt-Birn finished 10-9 for the season, including an 8-4 record in the CWC-East for a third-place finish. The Chargers earned a playoff win over Manawa before being eliminated by Amherst.

Schedule set for Packers training camp, with action starting July 28

The Green Bay Packers announced the schedule for 2021 Packers Training Camp, presented by Bellin Health. This marks Green Bay's 76th training camp, a tradition that began in 1946 under Curly Lambeau.

As in the past, practices are scheduled to take place at Ray Nitschke Field and Packers Family Night will be at Lambeau Field. All practices that are open to the public will take place at 10:10 a.m.

With a theme of "Back to Football," training camp kicks off with a practice on July 28. It will be the first of four straight practices as part of the opening week (July 28-31).

The Packers will open the second week with three open practices (Aug. 2-3, 5), before Family Night takes place at Lambeau Field on Aug. 7. Green Bay will have three open practices (Aug. 10-12) before the first preseason game on Aug. 14 against the Houston Texans at Lambeau Field.

Green Bay will finish off the open sessions of training camp with two joint practices (Aug. 18-19) with the

New York Jets, before facing the Jets at Lambeau Field on Aug. 21.

The Packers go on the road for the third and final preseason game at the Buffalo Bills on Aug. 28.

Should inclement weather or any other factor force the team indoors, practices will be closed to the public due to space limitations inside the Don Hutson Center. Please also note that all practice dates and times are subject to change.

The annual Packers Family Night, presented by Bellin Health, is scheduled for Aug. 7, at Lambeau Field. The format will be a full practice to accomplish the team's preparation goals for the regular season. The evening remains family-focused and will feature a game-like atmosphere with use of the video boards as well as game-day music and a fireworks show at the end of the night. The doors for the event will open at 5:20 p.m. and the team will be introduced on the field at 7:20 p.m. with practice starting at 7:30 p.m.

Important dates on the preseason calendar include:

- July 23 – Rookie players report
 - July 23 – Packers 1K Kids Run, presented by Edvest, 6 p.m.
 - July 24 – Packers 5K Run/Walk, presented by Bellin Health, Lambeau Field, 8 a.m.
 - July 26 – Packers Annual Meeting of Shareholders, 11 a.m.
 - July 28 – First practice, 10:10 a.m., Ray Nitschke Field
 - Aug. 7 – Family Night, presented by Bellin Health, 5:30 p.m., Lambeau Field
 - Aug. 19 – Last practice open to public, 10:10 a.m., Ray Nitschke Field
- According to the Greater Green Bay Convention and Visitors Bureau and a 2010 study by AECOM, training camp, along with Packers Family Night, presented by Bellin Health, could attract approximately 90,000 visitors from across the nation and as many as 20 foreign countries, with a total economic impact estimated at approximately $9 million.

The Packers will not be using their customary training-camp arrangements at St. Norbert College this summer due to protocols put in place by the NFL that has clubs maximizing use of their own facilities to mitigate exposure to the pandemic.

The Packers will use their facilities at Lambeau Field for their entire training-camp operations, including practice, meals and meetings. Housing arrangements are in the process of being finalized.

Prior to 2020, St. Norbert College had hosted the Packers for training camp since 1958, with players residing in an on-campus residence hall and eating dinner in the college's commons.

Fans will be permitted to attend practices, but certain fan elements of the traditional training camp experience are still being determined. As training camp approaches, more information will be shared so fans know what to expect before they come to practice.

For information, visit www.packers.com.

Bowler, Tigerton each have 5 players land on CWC-North all-conference teams

Panthers' Brei named Coach of the Year

By MORGAN RODE
Sports Editor

The Bowler and Tigerton high school baseball teams each had five individual players earn recognition on Central Wisconsin Conference-North Division teams after the season wrapped up.

Bowler finished tied for second in the conference with a 7-3 record, while Tigerton tied for fourth at 3-7.

Bowler

Seniors Lane Schultz and Logan Thiex were each named to the CWC-North first team. Senior Adin Brei and sophomore Ashwuut Mohawk landed on the second team, while senior Brock Strassburg was an honorable mention. The conference's Coach of the Year honor went to Bowler's Brad Brei.

On the mound, Schultz earned five of the team's conference wins and pitched a total of 25 1/3 innings. He posted a 3.03 earned run average.

Schultz finished CWC-North play with a .310 batting average and led the team with 15 stolen bases. He also scored 14 times and drove in eight runs.

"It is a great accomplishment, and the perfect way to end my career playing high school baseball," said Schultz of the all-conference honor. "This one means the most to me because of my passion for baseball. I really enjoy playing this game and putting on a show for the crowd."

Thiex was the other workhorse on the mound for the Panthers, logging 21 2/3 innings. He picked up the other two conference wins, struck out 20 batters and had a 4.2 ERA.

At the plate, Thiex finished with a .429 batting average and drove in nine runs. He also scored 13 times and stole nine bases.

Adin Brei, the team's primary catcher, earned his spot on the second team after posting a .444 batting average in conference action.

He scored 16 runs and stole 10 bases. The senior also drove in eight runs.

Bowler's Lane Schultz pitches during the team's nonconference game against Lena/St. Thomas Aquinas Academy on May 4 in Bowler. Schultz made the CWC-North first team in his senior season and was one of five Bowler players honored this spring.

MORGAN RODE | NEW MEDIA

Mohawk, who played either short-stop or third base, led the team with a .552 batting average, collecting hits in 16 of 29 at-bats.

The sophomore drove in 10 runs, stole nine bases and scored eight runs for the Panthers.

"It felt great because I took a pause playing baseball, but coming back and being rewarded second team is a great accomplishment," said Mohawk. "Getting first team is a new goal of mine that I can hopefully achieve by next year."

Strassburg played first base for Bowler this spring, ending CWC-North play with a .267 batting average. He drove in four runs, stole four bases and scored eight times.

"Making all-conference two of the three years I was able to play baseball means a lot to me," said Strassburg. "I worked hard for the team and being awarded an all-conference award was a great feeling. It shows that hard work pays off!"

After its strong regular season, the Panthers earned a playoff win over Tigerton before falling to Three Lakes/Phelps in a regional final.

"I was quite surprised to see that I got it," said Brad Brei of his Coach of the Year award. "But, it means a lot that I have the respect of the other coaches that voted for me. Since I started coaching baseball, we would of had three good years, taking second in conference the two years we got to play! I got to coach a great group of boys which makes coaching a lot more fun."

Tigerton

Seniors Isaac Schoen and Mitch Zimdars represented Tigerton on the all-conference first team. Senior Kaeden Miller and sophomore Colby Wanta made the second team, while sophomore Asher Michaelis was an honorable mention.

Zimdars led the Tigers at the plate in conference action, tallying 16 hits in 38 at-bats. He drove in seven runs and stole 11 bases while also scoring nine runs.

He accumulated 19 2/3 innings on the mound and earned one of the team's conference wins. He posted a 2.14 ERA and struck out 27 batters.

"It means more than everyone thinks," said Zimdars of his all-conference honor. "Being cut short of my junior baseball season and senior football season really put a fire underneath me. I've never worked so hard for something in my life and I couldn't be more proud of that."

Schoen pitched 30 innings for the Tigers and also picked up a win. He had a 3.27 ERA and struck out 23 batters.

At the plate, Schoen produced seven hits and eight RBIs. He scored five runs and stole five bases.

"To me, it (making the first team) means that I've achieved the goal that I've set for myself as a freshman and I finally did it," said Schoen. "It means everything to me that I've achieved the greatest goal that I've set for myself in baseball."

Miller tallied 14 hits in conference action and led the team with 13 runs scored. He also covered 6 2/3 innings on the mound, striking out 10 batters in that time.

"It's an absolute honor to be put into the same class with very talented players," said Miller. "However, like everything else, I couldn't have done anything without my teammates and coaches. It's a great feeling to be able to bounce back after not having a previous season."

Wanta tied Schoen for the team lead in RBIs (eight) on his 12 conference hits. He also drew 10 walks, scored seven runs and stole five bases. Wanta pitched four innings for Tigerton.

"Making all-conference second team means a lot to me," said Wanta. "I love that people recognize the dedication that I've put into baseball and it will motivate me to push the younger athletes that are up and coming to have a positive mindset that anything's possible and lastly to do anything to make me a better athlete/teammate/role model."

Michaelis finished his first varsity spring season with nine hits and seven RBIs in CWC-North action. He also drew seven walks. The sophomore pitched 5 1/3 innings and picked up the team's other win.

"Well it really means a lot," said Michaelis of his all-conference spot. "The team worked hard all season to get to where we were and I hope we keep that same passion for the game that we had this year in the years to come. And it will definitely motivate me to be better, and with my first year under my belt I would hope to start becoming a better leader for the team."

Wilinski earns win in caution-filled IMCA Modified feature

Sobiesczyk, Anvelink, Van Straten, Westphal also earn wins

By DAVE BUSS

Special to NEW Media

Tyler Sobiesczyk, Konnor Wilinski, Nick Anvelink, Travis Van Straten and Tanner Westphal added to their trophy cases after earning feature wins at Shawano Speedway on July 10.

The Sport Mods led feature action on the track and it didn't take long for Teagan Wudstrack to grab the lead from pole sitter Forrest Kernen. Wudstrack paced the field early as Jason Jach gave chase in second.

Three- and four-wide battles raged on further back as Sobiesczyk began to fight his way to the front. Wudstrack continued a strong run, building up a nice lead over Jach as the halfway point neared.

Sobiesczyk got to the back bumper of Jach as the field began to space itself out. While Wudstrack hunted the checkered flag, he found a yellow with just a few laps remaining. The caution was all Sobiesczyk needed to close the gap on the top two.

On the restart, Sobiesczyk sneaked past Jach and then engaged in a side-by-side battle with Wudstrack for the top spot. Sobiesczyk won that battle and cruised to another feature win.

The IMCA Modifieds saw Shawn Frelich and Nick Holtger on the front row to start their feature; however, the front row was not the place to be. Two cautions before the first lap was complete ended the night for the top two. Marcus Yarie was also caught up and his night ended before it started.

When the race finally got going, Mike Schmidt grabbed the early lead with Brekken Kleinschmidt giving chase. Further back, Jordan Bartz worked the high side, moving into the top five.

Kleinschmidt grabbed the lead, moving past Schmidt on the high side as well. Bartz followed suit and grabbed second. Andy Karl pulled to Schmidt's back bumper in the fourth spot as the leaders built an advantage. Wilinski, taking note of the high side advantage, jumped to third.

A lap nine restart saw the top three break away, only to be slowed by another yellow flag. Wilinski grabbed second on the ensuing restart as Kleinschmidt continued to lead. Wilinski used the top and bottom of the track to eventually catch the Kleinschmidt machine and then make the pass for the top spot. Wilinski survived another caution and drove to victory despite a valiant effort from Kleinschmidt.

The Late Models saw Todd Frank jump to the early advantage in their feature event with Butch Thiel settling in second. Perennial front runner Anvelink sliced his way to second by lap four and gave chase to Frank. Meanwhile, Frank worked to build a sizable cushion between himself and the hard-charging Anvelink.

Aaron Wickersheim sat third with Tom Naeyaert in fourth as laps flew by. Anvelink slowly ate into the Frank lead and got to his back bumper near the halfway point.

Anvelink eventually caught Frank and powered past on the low side as the two caught lap traffic. Frank fought back on the high side to regain the lead a lap later and looked to build his lead back. Anvelink again used the low side through corners one and two to get by Frank. This time he would not give up the top spot, and Anvelink grabbed another checkered flag.

The IMCA Stock Car feature saw Vern Stedjee, trying to join his son Dylan with a trip to victory lane this year, grab the early lead.

Kyle Frederick and Dan Michonski moved their way to the top three and gave chase. Frederick used the low side to chop into the Stedjee lead as Van Straten joined the fray up front.

Michonski, Frederick, Van Straten and Chucky Forstner put on a spirited battle for the runner-up spot. Caution settled things down for a lap or two and also bring Stedjee back to the field. Frederick used the restart to get to the side of Stedjee but not be able to complete the pass.

though as he went to the outside a few laps later. Again, Stedjee was up to the battle and kept his top spot. Forstner joined the battle a lap or two later and the top three eventually came out of corner four three wide.

Forstner survived that moment and grabbed the lead with Stedjee back to second. Van Straten got by Frederick for third as Forstner separated himself from the field.

As caution flew, smoke could be seen from the Forstner machine. Van Straten seized on that opportunity, grabbing the top spot on the restart. Trent Nolan grabbed second with three laps remaining.

Van Straten earned the feature win with Nolan second.

The Mighty 4 feature was a war of attrition as Westphal picked up another feature win.

Brad Wedde took home the second spot, with Carl King third and Alexis Michonski fourth.

American Jobs Plan to help rural areas

Our recently vaccinated family hit the highways and waterways in a major way this last month. Thanks to public investment, we have highways and interstates that cross the entire country, and I can zip off to visit family in Wyoming or Michigan relatively easily. I can make my way down the Mississippi River facilitated by an important lock and dam system that also allows commerce to flow.

American investment in infrastructure is often taken for granted, but having lived and traveled in lesser-developed nations with poor roads, airports and sometimes completely dysfunctional food systems, I can say we have it good. Public investment in domestic infrastructure allowed the U.S. economy to become one of the best in the world and keeps people safe and healthy.

It's in trouble, though. The American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) has compiled regular "report cards" on U.S. infrastructure for decades. In the 2017 report, the nation's infrastructure averaged a "D+," meaning conditions were "mostly below standard," exhibiting "significant deterioration," with a "strong risk of failure." Without significant investment, infrastructure gaps will cause major losses to a nation's GDP.

Rural areas see the gaps in affordable and accessible broadband, failing hospitals and unsafe highways, bridges and dams. It's bad in urban areas, too. In a recent Farmer-Labor Podcast conversation with Angela Lang, executive director of Black Leaders Organizing for Communities, she described the cascade of individual and community problems caused by lead pipes in Milwaukee.

Lead from water lines leaches into tap water and can have unhealthy effects on those who drink it, especially developing children. Lang spoke at length about physical and behavioral problems that affect children and cause a lifetime of damage. Fixing infrastructure problems should be something all Wisconsinites can get behind.

The mayors of Wisconsin's five largest cities recently penned a column of support for the American Jobs Plan, noting how not keeping up with repairs becomes overwhelmingly expensive. This is compounded by major weather events. Wisconsin has experienced 16 extreme weather events totaling $10 billion worth of damage over the past decade.

My personal experience with dangerous flooding came in June 2018. The first day on my new job at Wisconsin Farmers Union was unfortunately compounded by worry. My 19-year-old daughter was living alone in a remote area during the second 100-year flood to hit Bayfield County in two years. As she came home from work one night, the accumulation of four days of steady rain finally overran the capacity of rural infrastructure to hold back the water, and all hell broke loose.

Luckily, she made it home despite flooded roads and downed power lines, but we couldn't reach her in subsequent days and were really worried. Two people died in the floods, communications were down, and roads were washed out and closed for months. Some more remote roads were just repaired this year. The reality is rural counties don't have the resources to keep roads fixed when things are normal, let alone when weather catastrophes happen.

If you watch hyperpartisan news shows or listen to corporate-funded nobheads on Capitol Hill, you might think Americans are divided about how to pay for the American Jobs Plan and fix our roads and bridges, but the vibe is quite different on Main Street USA. The plan would raise the tax on U.S. corporations who profit from foreign income and impose a new corporate minimum tax. WFU's grassroots membership has long stood against corporate greed.

Many Americans support raising the corporate tax rate to pay for the infrastructure plan, including the majority of small businesses. This public support has yet to be recognized by the House and Senate. Maybe their ears are more open to corporate lobbyists than to constituents, or maybe they haven't heard from the masses. While people may disagree on what constitutes "infrastructure," they know that clean water and safe roads are why we pay taxes; both individuals and corporations need to pay their fair share.

Help educate those around you about the benefits of the American Jobs Plan, even if you don't agree with every single line item. This is the largest investment in rural areas that most of us will see in our lifetime and it could change the quality of life in big ways. As one young writer recently wrote in the op-ed section of the New York Times, "The American Jobs Plan is my generation's New Deal."

Don't wait for one more flood or one more excuse; the time is now.

Julie Keown-Bomar is the executive director of Wisconsin Farmers Union, a member-driven organization that is committed to enhancing the quality of life for family farmers, rural communities and all people through educational opportunities, cooperative endeavors and civic engagement.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Independence Day piece not a serious issue for reader

To the editor:

Having lived in Wittenberg over half of my life, I still enjoy reading the news from the Wittenberg Enterprise and Birnamwood News and the news of Shawano County.

I am sure you will not want to print this letter, but after reading your editorial "Fight for Independence Day like you do Christmas" I dug out my old newspapers, the Minneapolis Tribune and the West Tonka Laker. In them, I found three ads which included "Independence Day" and one article in the opinion page which mentioned Independence Day. Of course that week, there were also many references to the "4th of July" and "July Fourth."

With all the serious problems in our world, why try to foment more anger? Why try to create problems out of thin air? There must be better ways to use this beautiful gift of "independence" that we all have been given.

Date of publication or posting: July 16, 2021

City of Shawano
127 S. Sawyer Street
Shawano, WI 54166
(715) 526-6138

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

The above-named Unit of General Local Government (UGLG) has prepared an Environmental Assessment (EA) for the following project. The EA is on file at the address listed above and is available for public examination and copying. Electronic files can be requested by email at jthelen@msa-ps.com.

Project Name: Downtown Building Demolition & Public Plaza Construction 2021
Project Location: 214 S. Main Street, City of Shawano, Shawano County, Wisconsin
Estimated Cost of Project: $1,500,000

Nature/Purpose of Project: The City of Shawano, Shawano County, Wisconsin will be committing Community Development Block Grant funds to undertake the Downtown Building Demolition & Public Plaza Construction project. The proposed project includes the removal of two condemned city-owned buildings and construction of an open-air plaza connecting Franklin Park with downtown business district. Should there be leftover funds upon the completion of the project, the City might acquire and demolish an additional three buildings. The proposed plaza will be in the City's downtown area. The project area is bounded by E. Division Street (north), W. Presbyterian Street (south), S. Washington Street (west) and S. Sawyer Street (east).

The UGLG has determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and, accordingly, the UGLG has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (PL 91-190).

The reason for such decision is because the area has been previously disturbed and there are no natural habitats present. The proposed project, if completed as proposed will result in an adverse impact on the Shawano Main Street Historic District (NRHP #99000440) ("District") as the "Naber Block Building," ("Building") located on 214 S. Main Street, will be demolished. The Building is one property of the 34 resources that contribute to the District's character. This property has been found as blighted and unsafe for occupation. To comply with Section 106 of the Historic Preservation Act, the City of Shawano will enter into a Memorandum of Agreement with the Wisconsin State Historic Preservation Officer (SHPO) and the Shawano County Historical Society to resolve this adverse effect. The City will provide SHPO with updated photos of the interior of the Building and a new survey of the Shawano Main Street Historic District with updated photos and records for the Architectural History Inventory. The City will install an informational or interpretive sign addressing the significance of the Historic District. The City will provide the building's nameplate to the Historical Society. With the exception of the adverse effect on the District, none of the agencies with who have been consulted noted any negative impacts and the project is expected to have only beneficial impacts on the human environment.

All agencies, groups or individuals disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments to the above address. Such written comments should be received on or before August 2, 2021. All such comments will be considered, and the UGLG will not request the release of federal funds or begin the project prior to such date.

On or about August 2, 2021, the UGLG will request the Division of Energy, Housing and Community Resources (DEHCR) to release Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (PL 93-383) as amended for this project.

The UGLG is certifying to DEHCR that it and its chief executive officer, in his/her official capacity as Mayor, consent to accept the jurisdiction of the federal courts if an action is brought to enforce environmental review responsibilities, decision-making, and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. Upon certification, the UGLG may use the CDBG funds, and DEHCR will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. DEHCR will accept an objection to the release of funds and certification only if (a) the certification was not executed by the chief executive officer or other officer of the UGLG approved by DEHCR; or (b) the UGLG's EA indicates omissions of a required decision, finding, or step. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with 24 CFR 58, and may be addressed to the Division of Energy, Housing and Community Resources, Attention: Environmental Desk, P.O. Box 7970, Madison, WI 53707-7970.

Objections for reasons other than those stated above will not be considered by DEHCR. No objections received after August 17, 2021 will be considered by DEHCR.

Bruce Milavitz, Mayor, 127 S. Sawyer Street, Shawano, WI 54166

'Chomp' is a wild and wacky ride

Carl Hiaasen is one of my favorite authors, so I was happy to find "Chomp" on Infosoup.

Mickey Cray, his wife, Sue, and son Wahoo own several rescued critters. To offset the cost, Mickey allows tourists to see the animals up close. Their stars are Alice, the 12-foot alligator, and Beulah, the massive python. A couple years ago, Alice accidentally bit off Wahoo's thumb, but he knows it was his fault, too.

JAN JONES

Occasionally the animals are used in TV or movie productions. Money has been an issue since Mickey sustained a concussion when a large, frozen iguana fell on his head during a Florida freeze. Hoping to avoid foreclosure, Sue accepted a job teaching Mandarin Chinese to businessmen in China, leaving Wahoo and Mickey on their own.

One day a woman named Raven Stark from the TV show "Extreme Survival" approaches Mickey. She offers him big money to use Alice in an episode. The Crays despise fake outdoor shows but need the money.

When they meet the show's star Derek Badger, they know there'll be trouble. Derek is flabby, spray-tanned and insufferably arrogant. The script has him narrowly escaping an alligator, a simple task with docile Alice until Badger does something stupid and gets his pants caught on one of Alice's teeth, forcing Mickey to dive in and save the idiot.

The fiasco looks good on film, so the pampered star insists on filming the rest of the episode using only real wild animals. As Mickey and Wahoo prepare for the trip into the Everglades, they meet one of Wahoo's classmates, Tuna Gordon. She has a serious black eye thanks to her drunken father. Wahoo convinces his father to take Tuna with them.

To clarify, Wahoo's father named him after a once-famous professional wrestler/Miami Dolphins player, Wahoo McDaniel. Tuna isn't sure how she got it, but she hates her name as much as Wahoo hates his.

The crew sets up a base at Sickler's Landing, hire airboats and head for a suitable island to film on. Derek's signature trick is grabbing some innocent critter, killing it and cooking it for a meal. If he can't cook it, he eats it alive. Mickey and Wahoo hope to prevent any such senseless injuries to the 'glades inhabitants.

Things go from bad to worse in no time. After Derek gets nipped by a frightened snake, a big thunderstorm halts filming. Later he grabs a disoriented bat and tries to swallow it alive, but the bat chomps onto his tongue. By the next morning Derek's tongue is swollen and he's feverish. Believing he's turning into a vampire, he steals an airboat and soon crashes it on a nearby island.

As the storms continue, the crew limps back to Sickler's to organize a search for Derek. Without thinking, Tuna has used Sickler's phone to ask her father to feed her hamster. Now the crazy drunk is there to take his daughter back. What follows is a chaotic tangle of narrow escapes, hostage taking and deadly pursuits combined with a desperate search for the foolhardy TV star.

Somehow the kids, Gordon, Mickey and Derek Badger all end up on the same island. The trigger-happy Gordon thinks he's in control, but he has no idea how resourceful two kids and a crazed TV star can be.

The ensuing melee ends with Gordon's arrest and hospital stays for the wounded. Within weeks Wahoo's life has returned to normal.

Their bills are paid, the show has a new star, Mickey has been hired as a consultant with Wahoo his assistant, and Tuna has joined her mother in Chicago. Along the way two young people have learned about themselves and what it takes to be a real survivor.

We can learn a lot from every experience. Books from your public library offer insights, ideas and adventures galore. Why not stop by soon and check it out?

Pulaski Polka Days is on through Sunday

Chad Pryzbylski and his Polka Rhythms are among the bands that are gracing the three stages at Pulaski Polka Days, which returns this weekend after a pandemic-related cancellation last year.

Pryzbylski, right, and another local favorite, Eugene Maroszek, are newly inducted members of the World Concertina Congress Hall of Fame. The Maroszek Brothers are on Friday's schedule and Pryzbylski on Saturday.

The Pulaski Polka Days grounds at 448 E. Pulaski St. are expected to be full of revelry all weekend, as bands take the stages of two tents and the Knights of Columbus Building. Gates open at 1 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday, and an arts and crafts fair runs 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday's highlight is the big parade, which kicks off at 11 a.m. and goes from Pulaski Community Middle School to the parade grounds.

Come early on Sunday for the porkie and pancake breakfast from 8 to 11 a.m., with a nondenominational worship service at 8 a.m. and a Catholic polka Mass at 9:30 a.m.
